Pastoral Word from Bishop Bridgeforth

A Pastoral Word following Annual Conference 2026

(Excerpt) click link above for full text

June 20, 2026

I ask you to pray.

Pray for this conference.

Pray for all who are being targeted by hate, racism, anti-trans rhetoric, unjust laws, and harmful policies.

Pray for those who place themselves on the front lines every day —going where they need to go, serving where they are called to serve, and being who God created them to be, even when who they are is targeted, questioned, or deemed harmful.

And then let us do more than pray with words.

Let us pray with our feet, heal with our words, and love with our resources.

Let us continue the work of being neighbors.

Let us continue the work of eliminating racism.

Let us continue the work of making ministry matter in every place where God has planted us.

We will not abandon our witness. We will not abandon one another.

We will keep doing the work of love.

In Christ,

Bishop Cedrick D. Bridgeforth
Resident Bishop
