Lodge Corner

Hello! Pizza of the week is Chicken Alfredo, our cookie is chocolate chip, our baked good of the week is cherry bagels, and caramel rolls will be available! We also have a lot of leftover rolls that were frozen from the last couple weeks. These are available to be purchased at a discount ($3 each). New ice cream flavors will soon be rolling out too as we get through the old ones! They're a little behind as we had a miscommunication with our food service, but should be here by next weekend.
