CRESTWOODCABINETRY

BRIACABINETRY

WITH SUCH AN ENTICING ARRAY of design options and price points, it's no wonder Dura Supreme cabinetry has such appeal. Within our family of products, you'll find a perfect fit for every taste and budget. Dura Supreme employs a balance of quality materials and construction features with an impressive array of styling options to deliver exceptional value and design. Crestwood Cabinetry is traditional, American "framed" cabinetry, custom crafted with premium joinery and materials, and an extraordinary palette of door styles and finishes. Bria Cabinetry is an ideal blend of high-tech and high-fashion with its full-access construction and expansive styling choices from traditional to chic contemporary.

DESTINED TO BE A CLASSIC, this Bria kitchen combines the best of traditional styling with clean, modern design to create a look that will be as fresh tomorrow as it is today. Traditional white, painted cabinetry is given an up-to-the-minute look by selecting door styles and crown moldings with straight lines and sleek styling (no fussy details). An architectural hood with polished chrome accents and stainless steel appliances dress up this painted kitchen for upscale, contemporary appeal. The island offers a notable color contrast with its rich, dark, gray-hued finish on cherry cabinetry. The sculpted posts on each corner and the beadboard back give a nod to nostalgic country style in this modern kitchen.

“LOFT” LIVING originated in Paris when artists established studios in abandoned warehouses to accommodate the oversize paintings popular at the time. Modern loft environments idealize the characteristic features of their early counterparts with high ceilings, exposed beams, open spaces, and vintage flooring or brickwork. Soaring windows frame dramatic city skylines and interior spaces pack a powerful visual punch with their clean lines and minimalist approach to detail. Dura Supreme cabinetry coordinates perfectly within this design genre with sleek contemporary door styles and equally sleek interiors.

THE CRISP CLEAN DETAILS of a white painted kitchen are always in style! And this kitchen is especially runway worthy with its jewelry-like, chrome hardware and a fashionable, fluted apron sink. Delicately detailed turned posts frame the sink which has been uniquely positioned at an angle in the island. Dual dishwashers are conveniently located on each side of the sink and integrated into the cabinetry to blend seamlessly. A beautiful wall of glass-fronted cabinetry (with a contrasting finish on the interior) showcases a collection of all-white plateware, while the drawers below offer ample storage. Crestwood cabinetry with Inset styling creates the perfect ensemble.

A KITCHEN YOU'LL NEVER WANT TO LEAVE! There was a time when you couldn't wait to get out of the kitchen, but with your new Bria Cabinetry, you may never want to leave it. Bria Cabinetry is crafted with a uniquely engineered, full-access construction. This practical and intelligent design creates cabinetry that performs as beautifully as it looks. Behind each cabinet door is a full-access interior with more storage capacity than typical framed cabinetry. Beneath every drawer are concealed, undermount slides heralded for their incredibly smooth glide and a soft-close, self-close feature. You'll find yourself lingering in your Bria kitchen long after the dishes have been washed and put away.

BOLD AND BRASSY DETAILS are a striking accent for this beautiful painted kitchen adding an elegant and eye-catching metal finish. Abounding in storage, drawer banks were designed below the window wall to take advantage of natural sunlight that floods the kitchen, making the brushed brass details glimmer. A hutch cabinet with glass doors and curved mullions adds a graceful display space for cherished items. Clever and convenient “column” pull-outs house spices and a knife block on both sides of the range to keep often-used items close to the cooking center. Making the most of every nook in this kitchen, a small desk for two is tucked into a corner to multi-purpose the space.

A STUDY IN CONTRAST adds an air of elegant sophistication to this wonderful family kitchen. Beautiful Linen White paint, featured on the wall cabinets, creates a light and airy feeling. Providing the contrast is the dramatic Smoke finish on Oak. Used on the base cabinetry in the kitchen and in the adjacent butler's pantry, Smoke brings an unexpected modern twist to this traditional wood species. The texture of oak combined with the smooth simplicity of a painted finish is another way of creating contrast of the tactile kind. Pops of brushed brass on the hardware, hood and door inserts add the finishing touches to this stylish space. What a gorgeous place to come home to!

A LOFTY CONCEPT IN KITCHEN DESIGN. Bria Cabinetry is a sublime choice for the urban comforts of loft living that originated in Paris and New York's SoHo district. Now fashionable in metros around the globe, city living has never been so simple or sophisticated. This Bria kitchen dignifies its downtown digs with clean, contemporary lines and its uptown mix of sleek, natural materials. With soaring ceilings and commanding views of the city skyline, this contemporary dwelling is a perfect complement to Bria's efficient design and high-tech hardware. Whether uptown, downtown, country or cottage, Bria Cabinetry by Dura Supreme is a savvy choice for every style.

ENJOY THE VIEW FROM YOUR BREATHTAKING KITCHEN. Despite the scenic view outside the kitchen window, it's your Crestwood kitchen that takes your breath away. A panoramic mantel hood soars over the stainless steel range creating a stunning architectural focal point. Beveled glass doors twinkle in the early morning sunlight. A picturesque island stands amid the stream of family activities as you begin and end each day in the heart of your home – your Crestwood kitchen. Although Crestwood Cabinetry is crafted with quality materials and construction, it was the bounty of delicious design details that cemented your decision. Of course the delicate dent it made on your pocket book was a nice surprise as well.

SLEEK AND MINIMALIST, this Bria kitchen is designed to showcase its glossy exterior and contemporary styling. But don't let the sleek exterior fool you, as this kitchen is full of space saving storage solutions and hard-working organizational features on the inside. Flip-up doors create remarkably accessible storage in cabinetry that is conveniently positioned over the sink. Stainless steel drawers glide effortlessly with a soft-close, self-closing feature and are compartmentalized to keep contents organized. On the back of the peninsula, drawers not only hide the cooktop from view but provide handy storage of silverware and placemats within easy access of the dining table.

THIS RICH, CREAMY PAINT creates a tranquil canvas for the beautiful architectural details to take center stage. The wood hood delivers a striking performance as the paint showcases each detail in the corbels and arched valance. Dura Supreme's well-rounded paint palette includes several "whites", from a true White to Antique White to Pearl and Cashmere. If plain paint isn't quite right for you, embellish it with glaze, or distressing, or our "Heritage Paint" detailing. The classic good looks of a painted finish never go out of style and are always a crowd pleaser.

WHIP UP A MASTERFUL RECIPE in your new kitchen with delicious details from Dura Supreme. Rich, chocolate-hued cabinetry is accented with a savory mix of Aluminum Frame doors and frosted glass. Stir in a sprinkle of sleek, stainless steel hardware for a tasteful embellishment. The massive island creates a weighty centerpiece that invites the entire family to gather in the kitchen and linger long after dessert. Natural stone countertops and tile backsplashes add sumptuous flavor and contrast to the dark brown cabinetry. Bria Cabinetry from Dura Supreme offers an appetizing blend of hand-craftsmanship and spicy contemporary details to create a one-of-a-kind kitchen.

SUGARY WHITE PAINT is a delicious color for this beautiful Crestwood kitchen with its cozy breakfast nook tucked into the back of the island. The unique design of this island offers seating areas on both sides, and is an open invitation for guests to make themselves at home. It's so easy to pull up a chair at the counter, or convene around the table and enjoy meals and comfortable conversation. Square bin pulls and the expansive hood with polished chrome detailing give this kitchen sparkle and glamour. White painted cabinetry is so very popular right now, topping everyone's menu for their favorite appetizer, entree and dessert!
