

Angels & Demons

Let the angels close the doors
You're not goin that way anyways
Is your life really yours?
Or are you living for somebody else?

Tell me when you turn the lights out
When you close your eyes
Don't the shadows come out to play?
You can't escape your demons,
But you can teach them how to dance
The choice is yours to make

Careful not to close your mind
It really won't protect you in the end
Tell me, do you love your life?
Or do you wish you were somebody else?

Do you feel so worthless like you're just an empty shell?
Don't you wanna grow your wings?
Change is terrifying, but staying stuck will fucking kill you
You don't know what time is gonna bring

Tomorrow feels so far away, and all our yesterday's are gone
Tomorrow feels so far away, and all our yesterday's are gone

Let the angels close the doors
