

Cry All Over

Out on stage, I make love to the people
But I'm still going home alone
Thank God Jack doesn't ask me any questions
He's my angel waiting in the wings

"I would never be young again
I'd have to cry all over"
I don't wanna lose another friend
I'm scared of getting older

Can't wait for the day when I prove them all wrong
Make them wish they'd never said those awful things
So what if I'm a little different
I'd take different any day over boring

I can't stay here
I'm changing too much
I'm tired of being sad
Get on the road
And go anywhere else
"I wanna be happy so fucking bad"

"I would never be young again
I'd have to cry all over"
I don't wanna lose another friend
I'm scared of getting older
Can we stay here for a little while?

I don't need anything in the world that's gonna bring me down
I don't need your bad energy like a dark cloud following me around
I don't need anyone; not my friends, not my lovers tonight
I'm finally flying free
I got nothing left to lose

“I would never be young again
I’d have to cry all over”
I don’t wanna lose another friend
I’m scared of getting older
I’m scared of getting older
