

MIKE CAPOZZI

IMDb

Mike Capozzi is a film and television actor based in Los Angeles. Dubbed "The Face" by the founder of The Groundlings, Gary Austin who said "I've worked with thousands of actors and I've never seen anyone do what Mike does."

Capozzi is recurring in the second season of the Emmy Award winning HBO Series "The Pitt", also appearing on AMC's "Mayfair Witches" as 'Ben Mayfair' opposite Alexandra Daddario and Harry Hamlin, ABC's hit series "The Rookie" as the not-so-smooth con man 'Josh Cherry', pretending to be Nathan Fillion's "John Nolan", and can be seen with an all star cast with acclaimed director Joseph Kahn's "ICK" which premiered at TIFF.

Mike can also be seen in the Apple TV+ series "Five Days at Memorial" directed by Carlton Cuse.

His character work has allowed him to play a wide variety of roles including his breakout as Angry Brian on the TBS show "Men at Work" and as the co-lead in Jim Klock's digital series "Interrogations Gone Wrong" working opposite guest stars Jason O'Mara and Keanu Reeves.

Mike is also an accomplished trumpet and flugelhorn player.
