Jeff White started training in 2009 at Nan Sho Kempo Jujitsu in Greensboro NC under Jason May where he earned Shodan rank and Sensei title. While training at Nan Sho, he was introduced to Soke Don Phillips of Kanda Kamishin Aikijujitsu under whom he is currently ranked as Shodan; Guru George Morin of Kuntao Silat Morin, with whom he has trained for over 10 years and Guru Daniel Prasetya of Inti Ombak Pencak Silat.

In 2014, He met and commenced training in Shuri-Te Jujitsu under Kyoshi Troy Price. Shuri-Te quickly became his prime art and is currently a 3rd Dan and has been awarded the title of Renshi and is an official Instructor for Shuri-Te Bujutsu-Kai.

Around 2017 Jeff met Paul Cote who introduced him to Baguazhang and Xingyiquan. Eventually he settled on Xingyiquan and under Mr. Cote holds title of assistant teacher. Jeff has continued further studies in Silat and Kali with Anjing Gambala Pencak Silat and Buka-Lingkaranc Pencak Silat as well as David Seifert of Dynamic Fighting Arts under whom he is an Affiliate Instructor.

In 2018 Jeff opened a school in Raleigh NC and started teaching under Versatile Fighting Arts. He has taught at local seminars, Shuri-Te Bujutsu-Kai seminars and the Shuri-Te International Martial Arts Conference as well as Kanda Ha Kamishin and United Martial Arts Alliance International gathering. As of late 2022, Jeff resides in the greater New Orleans area.
