

Jimmy Newton, Renshi

- 5th Dan Karate Shorin Ryu Kensankai
- 4th Dan Kobudo Shorin-Ryu Kensankai
- 5th Dan Shuri-Te Bujutsu Kai
- Head instructor, Newton's Shorin Ryu Karate & Kobudo
- Instructor, Shuri-Te Bujutsu-Kai

Newton's Shorin Ryu Karate and Kobudo
Phone #704-408-0828
E-Mail: newtonskarate@gmail.com
www.newtonskarate.com
Facebook.com/NewtonsKarate
www.Shorinryukensankai.org www.SBKma.com

小林流空手道
小林流古武道

Jimmy Newton began training in karate in 1994 with Sensei Willie McIntosh in Shelby NC. Mr. McIntosh helped Mr. Newton open his first dojo, Newton's Shorin Ryu Karate & Kobudo in June 2006. With Sensei McIntosh being unable to teach regularly, Mr. Newton, sought out his Sensei's teacher, Hanshi Doug Perry in 2006. Mr. Newton was issued his Godan in Karate and Yondan in Kobudo with the Shorin Ryu Kensankai in June, 2021.

In addition to being a dedicated student of Sensei Perry, Mr. Newton had the opportunity to train with Kyoshi Troy Price, director of the Shuri-te Bujutsu Kai. After several training sessions with Mr. Price at various seminars, Mr. Newton joined the Shurite Bujutsu-Kai in January, 2020 and received his Instructor certificate in June, 2022 as well as the title of Renshi in June.2022

Mr. Newton has competed and excelled on a state, regional, and national level. His dojo has earned 100s of medals and he has been both a technical coach and official with AAU karate since 2006.

Here are some of the people Jimmy Newton has had the privilege of learning from:

- Doug Perry, Shorin Ryu Karate and Kobudo
- Troy Price, Shuri Te Karate
- Bill Hayes, Shorin Ryu Karate
- John Carria Uechi Ryu Karate
- Jim Logue , Ryu-te Karate
- Jeff Rhodes, Kwan Mu Kan Karate, Ju-Justu & Judo
- Jason Perry Shorin Ryu Karate and Kobudo
- Alex Ormaza , Oyata-te Karate
- Vic Coffin Okinawa Kenpo
- Liu Chan, Feeding Crane Kung Fu
- (and several others)

Memberships:

Okinawa Shorin Ryu Karatedo Kobudo Kensankai
Shuri-Te Bujutsu-Kai

Awards:

Cleveland County Best of the Best 2007-2022
AAU top 20 club in the country, 2021