

Expectations for Members Running for Majlis Al-Shura
The Islamic Society of Sarasota & Bradenton (ISSB)

As-Salaamu Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah,

We sincerely thank you for your willingness to serve our community through the Majlis Al-Shura at the Islamic Society of Sarasota & Bradenton (ISSB). Serving on the ISSB Shura (Board) is both an honor and a trust (Amaanah) for the sake of Allah (SWT). Members are expected to uphold Islamic values, dedicate their time, and contribute meaningfully to the growth and integrity of our community. The following outlines the core expectations:

1. Time Commitment

- Attend regular monthly meetings (approximately 2–3 hours per meeting).
- Be available for occasional special or emergency meetings.
- Dedicate additional time to review documents, proposals, and meeting materials.

2. Active Involvement

- Participate actively and constructively in discussions and decision-making.
- Make sound and informed decisions by actively participating after reviewing documents, financial records, and member input and recommendations.
- Prioritize ISSB's mission and interests over personal or professional gain; avoid conflicts of interest in all decisions.
- Ensure that ISSB operates within its mission, bylaws, and complies with all local and federal laws.
- Serve on subcommittees or task forces as needed.
- Maintain regular communication with fellow Shura members and the ISSB leadership.

3. Ethics and Accountability

- Uphold Islamic values, mutual respect, and professionalism at all times.
- Exercise confidentiality and discretion with sensitive or internal matters.
- Promote unity, transparency, and integrity in all actions.
- Work collaboratively to support the growth, inclusivity, and spiritual well-being of the ISSB community.

4. Leadership & Vision

- Contribute to strategic planning and long-term visioning for ISSB's programs and future.
- Engage with community members, listen to concerns, and represent their interests fairly and sincerely.
- Encourage innovation and support decisions that strengthen ISSB's role and impact in the broader community.

Jazakum Allahu Khairan,
ISSB Election Committee

I confirm that I have read and understood the ISSB Board Member Expectations and have thoroughly reviewed the ISSB Bylaws. I acknowledge the importance of upholding these responsibilities with sincerity, integrity, and commitment.
