President's Message

Welcome to Winter...

I am not sure I'm ready for it, but ready or not, it appears to be here. Sorry to have missed the October Meeting, and as luck would have it, plans I made back in the spring will keep me away for the November Meeting as well.

That being said, I've seen the fabulous photos of the October Show and Tell - we have a very talented group of quilters in our Guild. I look forward to seeing not only what you bring to the November meeting, but what you will have for sale at the Yellowknife Quilter's Guild Christmas Sale on December 3rd at the Centre Ice Plaza. Watch your inbox for updates on this event and be sure to tell EVERYONE about it. A poster is in the works for you to share and post everywhere. Last year the people that came to the sale bought.... So we need to get as many people as we can to the sale. Volunteers will be needed to help with intake and set up on Friday night and the sale and take down on Saturday. Please sign up. A sheet will be available at the November Meeting.

What a weekend we just had! Terry Rowland did not disappoint and her Trunk Show on Friday Night was awesome and clearly demonstrated her love of scrap quilting. Thanks to the Guild of Arts and Crafts for allowing us to use their premises. On Saturday, 10 intrepid students learned about the Kawandi way of making quilts and practiced on a placemat. Very cool - no ironing, no sewing machines! On Sunday, 14 students attended the Raven collage class. Most of us finished the actual Raven and learned about how to finish our project and give the Raven a home. I thought about putting mine on a power pole. Seemed fitting, but she's a little too classy for that. Thanks to the Quilted Raven for the space for the classes, and to Leslie and Stu Bromley for hosting Terry in their home. We had a blast showing her our city and she took every opportunity to showcase her quilts. Too bad the Northern Lights did not show up, but perhaps another time. You can follow Terry on Facebook; Instagram; and YouTube.

Looking ahead, plans are in the works to make the December meeting special.... You won't want to miss it.

Linda

Recipe Corner

We all struggle when preparing meals for our families while we have been spending the day quilting. Your problem is solved here in our new QUILTER'S RECIPE CORNER!! Each month we will give you a quick, tasty and healthy option so you can spend more time working on your projects and not in the kitchen! If you have a recipe that you use that's quick to prepare, please send it to us at YKQuilters@outlook.com. We would love to use it in our Corner.

Frittata Recipe

Author: Love & Lemons Food Blog, by Jeanine and Jack.

Source: <https://www.loveandlemons.com/frittata-recipe/#wprm-recipe-container-43243>

Ingredients:

Basic Frittata Recipe:

6 large eggs, use 8 eggs for a 12-inch skillet

¼ cup unsweetened almond milk, or any milk

2 garlic cloves, minced

¼ tsp. sea salt, more for sprinkling

Freshly ground black pepper

Extra-virgin olive oil, for drizzling

Variation #1 Broccoli Feta (pictured)

6 scallions, chopped

2 cups chopped broccoli or broccolini

1/8 tsp. smoked paprika

¼ cup crumbled feta cheese

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.
2. Whisk the eggs, almond milk, garlic, and salt until well combined. Set aside.
3. Broccoli Feta: Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in a 10 or 12-inch cast-iron skillet over medium heat. Add the scallions, broccoli, and a pinch of salt and pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until the broccoli is tender but still bright green, 5 to 8 minutes. Stir in the smoked paprika, then add the egg mixture and gently shake the pan to distribute. Sprinkle with the feta and bake 15 to 20 minutes or until the eggs are set. Season to taste and serve.

See the website for these other variations: Roasted Red Pepper & Spinach; Spring Veggie; Mixed Mushroom & Tarragon; Caprese.
