President's Message

Happy New Year!

Well to be honest, it is not even Christmas as I write this for the January version of the newsletter; and the sewing machine, oven and dishwasher have been working overtime as we count down the days to Christmas and the New Year. Yep, things are a little chaotic!

But, back to business.... First of all, thanks to everyone who contributed to the Annual Christmas Sale - the volunteers who set up and tore down in record time; and those who worked the sale throughout the day. You were excellent salespeople! For those who were not at the December Meeting to hear the news on this very successful event, a report can be found here in the newsletter.

Thanks also to those who came to our potluck supper and meeting in December. As the pictures will show, it was a fun night with games, prizes and gifts for everyone; not to mention a quick visit by the man himself, Mr. Claus. Thank you to "Santa" for the visit, the Executive Committee for their hard work and the Baker Center for allowing us to use their kitchen. The Show and Tell items were also simply beautiful and inspiring. It was nice to see pieces that people had started in classes – both from local and out of town instructors.

New Year

The other good news... Membership numbers are up and at last report we had 68 members; and plans are in the works for the Spring Retreat and the out of town instructor Libs Elliott!

Our first meeting of 2023 will be Thursday, January 12th at 7:00 pm. I hope to see you all there as we get back to our regular meeting Agenda. If you have any ideas for learning opportunities that we can add to the Agenda, please send me a quick note (lgw@northwestel.net) We have volunteers for snacks at the meetings for March through May, but need volunteers for January 12th, February 9th, and June 8th. If you can sign up, let me know at the address above.

And with that... Hope you all have a wonderful Christmas and all the best for the year to come... Happy Quilting!

Linda

Quilting Tips from The Quilted Raven

The Houston Quilt Market not only had sessions on new products, but they also distributed information on a variety of topics. The topic I would like to share is Copyright.

Copyright Tips and The Quilter

What is Copyright

In the simplest terms, Copyright is when you create something. Art, photographs, music, painting, the list goes on. Canadian Law protects all original creative works. Photocopies are copies, we all understand that. Did you know that to display someone's work on your website you need to have permission first. Many patterns will put a note in the pattern indicating what the pattern and items made can be used for.

Basic Blocks, Techniques

Basic blocks, example Drunkards Path, that have been around forever, are not protected under copyright. If a pattern is designed using a variety of basic blocks, then it is protected. A pattern which only uses one block through the whole quilt would not be protected. The same goes for Techniques. A technique showing a new style is not protected. If you produce a video with directions using a binding technique, then it would be protected under Copyright.

Trademark vs Copyright

Copyright is rights for creative works. Trademarks are words, symbols or an element that helps consumers identify a brand. Example: Janome, Pfaff, Schmetz Needles.

Going Forward, what is allowed?

Can I copy a pattern from a friend? – No

Can I use a copy of a pattern a Quilt Store has purchased? - No. - The person who purchases the pattern owns the physical copy, not the contents.

Can I share a link? - Yes

Can I post people's work on my Facebook? - Yes, if you have permission

If you display or sell a Quilt, from a pattern, permission and acknowledgement is required from the Artist.

I have included this link to the Waterloo Country Quilters Guild. This is one of many Guilds who have posted information on their Guild website regarding Copyright. Scroll down on the site and look at the Copyright flow chart.

Enjoy Quilting but be aware of Copyright rules.

Christmas Sale

Thank you to everyone who participated in this year's sale!!!

To those who donated quilted items, to those who donated cash, to those who sold their own items, to those who worked the sale and especially those who organized and set up the sale.....a very, very sincere thank you.

All of you were a big part in making this sale one of the best we have had in years.

As this is our major fundraiser for the year it is expected that members contribute in some way. It was amazing to see that 22 members donated quilted items and 17 members donated cash.

That's 39 of our 67 members!!!

Wowza!!!! That is pretty darn amazing!!

Most items sold were smaller items (i.e., table runners, wall hangings, etc.) but a couple of larger items sold as well. People were definitely in the buying spirit.

For those who may be interested our gross sales of quilted items were $7,135.00 the day of the sale.

As of the time of writing this article, the total amount we made from the sale (after additional monetary donations from members were collected and the expenses were paid) is

$2,488.09

This money raised goes back to the membership for offsetting our costs of the Baker Center rentals, Retreats, Out of Town Teacher expenses, meeting prizes, etc.

Should anyone at any time, have any questions about this, please don't hesitate to contact me (Donna) at baja@ssimicro.com.

Thanks again everyone!!!!

Donna

Recipe Corner

We all struggle when preparing meals for our families while we have been spending the day quilting. Your problem is solved here in our new QUILTER'S RECIPE CORNER!! Each month we will give you a quick, tasty and healthy option so you can spend more time working on your projects and not in the kitchen! If you have a recipe that you use that's quick to prepare, please send it to us at YKQuilters@outlook.com. We would love to use it in our Corner.

Oven Roasted Vegetables

In my family, vegetables are a big part of special occasion dinners such as Christmas dinner. In the past, the vegetables have been boiled but in the last couple of years we have roasted the vegetables. This a basic recipe and there are many more out there for everyday cooking.

Source: <https://www.wellplated.com/oven-roasted-vegetables/> - Well plated by Erin.

Ingredients:

Vegetables:

Bell Peppers – cut into ¾-inch pieces

Zucchini – cut into ¾-inch pieces

Sweet Potato – cut into ¾ -inch pieces

Red Onion – cut into about 4 wedges

Broccoli – cut into small rectangular pieces, and slice florets into pieces that are about ½ to ¾ -inch thick and 1 ½ to 2-inches wide.

Olive Oil

Dijon Mustard

Italian Seasoning

Spices – a mix of salt, pepper, and garlic powder

Parmesan

Directions:

1. Add the oil, mustard, and spices to the cut vegetables.
2. Toss to coat.
3. Transfer the vegetables to two baking sheets.
4. Roast vegetables at 400 degrees F for 25 to 35 minutes, tossing and rotating them halfway through. Finish the Parmesan cheese.

There are tips on what to do with roasted vegetables and store in the above link.
