Lean Effective Talent Strategies, LLC Promotes Economic Self-Sufficiency of Women with Donation to Women's Fund of the Greater Cincinnati Foundation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

{Loveland, OH, December 28th, 2018} – Lean Effective Talent Strategies, LLC, a leading provider of talent acquisition consulting and proponent of women helping women succeed, is giving back to the community with a donation of 10% of total sales for 2018 to the Women's Fund of the Greater Cincinnati Foundation.

The Women's Fund of The Greater Cincinnati Foundation leads our community in ensuring the economic self-sufficiency of women in our region and ignites a shared desire to improve it.

"When I founded Lean Effective Talent Strategies, I wanted to ensure that we were able to give back to our community and help women succeed. The Women's Fund provides research and projects that improve self-sufficiency for women in the Greater Cincinnati area. I truly believe that helping women succeed helps our community succeed," Jodi Brandstetter, Founder and Chief Talent Strategist for Lean Effective Talent Strategies, LLC.

"Thank you to Jodi and Lean Effective Talent Strategies for the donation to The Women's Fund of the Greater Cincinnati Foundation. We believe that investing in women is the most effective way to make our community more prosperous. Research shows, when you empower women, the entire community thrives," Felicia Zakem, Development Director.

Lean Effective Talent Strategies, LLC (LETS) was founded in 2018 in Loveland, Ohio. They provide talent acquisition and recruiting consulting services for small to mid-size companies. Their services include a hiring blueprint where they establish a hiring process that is easy to use, sustainable and focuses on finding the right talent for the organization. Each year, the company will select an organization to be their LETS Giving Recipient who receives a donation of 10% of the sales for the year.
