Managers Notes:

Cardinals- The hot or cold Cards were on the short end today. We were down early, came back but the Rovers scored 8 late runs to win the day. Offensive highlight today was Don O homering again, unfortunately it was a solo blast. Out defense was solid with three double plays. Thanks to Orvin and Randy for filling in so the game could be played. Last makeup game next week against the Outlaws then the first round of the playoffs.

Mudcats- The mighty Mudcats clinched the league title this week with a win over the Warriors 30 to 21. Tim Larson, Sean Brannon, and Terry Pryor all batted 1000 with 13 RBIs between them, along with Selwyn Quan, Cruz Cisneros, and Mark Johnson, all hitting 4/5 and 12 RBIs between them. It was just too much for the Warriors to handle. I have to give a shout-out to Tim Larson and Mace McDonald for having such a great season and to Evans Kwok, Pat Kielsing, Cruz Cisneros, and Joe Serochl for doing just enough to push the MIGHTY MUDCATS over the top. Congratulations, Mudcats!

Outlaws- The Outlaws got off to a great start scoring 5 runs in the 1st inning and remained in the lead for the entire game. The team batting average was .727! Perfect at the plate were Jeff Beresini, Chris Castaneda, Mark Childress, Dave Lagman, Michael McCloud and John McCown. A defensive highlight was Chris Castaneda at second base snagging a hard grounder to his far right and throwing out the runner at first. Another defensive highlight was when Dave Lagman in left center field hustled to back up the right center fielder trying to make a diving catch of a fly ball and threw out the batter at second base.

Rovers- The Rovers beat the Cardinals. The Rover's top hitters were: Stephfawn Thompson going 5-5 with a triple and a whole lotta RBIs (7), Tony Camillo going 5-5 with 2 doubles and 3 RBIs, Mark Narciso going 4-4 with a SAC and 2 RBIs, and Andrew Cumming going 3-4 with 2 doubles, a SAC, and 2 RBIs. Rovers, together we will continue to rise up and unleash more FURY!

Warriors- Warriors went down to the Mudcats 30-21. Steve Mastronarde (4 hits and a walk) and Levalea Faleafine (6 hits including a triple) were perfect at the plate. Danny Bejarano set the table and scored 4 runs while Tom Knab provided the muscle with 3 doubles and knocking in 5 runs. Lots of missed opportunities in this one but hats off to the mighty Mudcats.

Wolfpack- The Outlaws were just too good. They hit, they defended and their pitchers, Bob and Max didn't help us out at all. Not one damn walk!!!! Final drubbing was 27-15. The pack was led by Tom Wagenseller's 5 for 5, 3 runs and 2 RBI. I won't mention.....no I won't. Vince Jorgenson went 4 for 4, 3 RBI and another amazing catch out in left. Dave Balfour had a 4 for 5 day while Mike Mooney went 3 for 4 with 3 RBI. Rick Morris knocked in 4.
