Managers Notes:

Cardinals- It was too hot, it was too early, the field wasn't right and the umpire wasn't fair and anything else we can blame for not having a good game today. The Outlaws big bats were complemented by our generous defense. We generated 22 hits but only 8 runs, lacking big hits in key situations. Welcome back to the league Ben Brack. He will be added to the Cardinals roster. Remember that next week's games are on Thursday if we can muster enough players...

Mudcats The Mudcats took on the Wolfpack this week and the winner of the game would take sole possession of first place. After three innings, the game was tied 9 to 9 which is fitting for two teams that are trying to take first place. After 6 innings the Wolfpack had a slim lead of 11 to 10. But then in the top of the seventh, the Mudcats were able to scrounge up three runs as they're able to hold the Wolfpack to zero runs for a two run lead going into the 8th but in the eighth inning is where the Mudcats were able to put the game away with Matt Alberti's base clearing triple for 5 runs in the eighth and the Mudcats were able to score 10 runs in the open inning for a 28 to 14 victory. Top hitters: Mace McDonald and Mark Johnson, both going six for six. Tim Larson 3 for 4 and Selwyn Quan and Sean Brandon both going 4 for 6.

at third base. Top hitters were Johnny McCown 4 for 4 with a triple and a homerun and 6 RBIs. Dave Lagman 3 for 3 with a double, a homerun and 5 RBIs. Chris Castaneda 3 for 3 with 4 runs scored. Mark Childress 3 for 3 with 3 RBIs. Mike McCloud, Max Martin and Bob Frey were all 3 for 4.

Rovers- WAITING

Warriors- The Rovers parlayed timely hitting and some great defensive plays (I see you Cary and Tony!) into a victory over the Wounded Warriors. Gordon Smith came back after a long absence and showed no signs of rust at the plate going 3 for 4 with a double and 2 RBIs. Tom Knab drove in 7 runs with 5 hits in 6 plate appearances while Nick Halatsis (12 for 13 in the last 3 games), Levalea (La'i) Faleafine (3 RBIs) and Ellen Seiji (double and triple) all smacked 4 hits apiece. Danny Bejarano set the table all morning with 4 runs scored.

Wolfpack- Wolf Pack and Mudcats had a close game going into 7th with the Wolf Pack leading 11-10. The Mudcats broke the game open with a 10 run 9th inning eventually winning 28 -16. Leading hitters Bob Bursted 5 for 6, 4 doubles. Jeff Le Boss 4 for 5, 3 doubles, 1 walk, 4 rbis. Jeff Barnes 4 for 5, 2 doubles, Rick Morris 3-4 with walk, 3rbis
