Managers Notes:

Cardinals- The Cards were no match for the hot Outlaws. They robbed us blind. Seriously, we were short handed and the Outlaws had two players volunteer to assist us and Randy also helped out. Thanks to them we were able to field a team. Next week, first round of the playoffs. Tough season for the Cardinals but all members of the team have maintained a team first attitude. In the playoffs anything can happen.

Mudcats The Mighty Mudcats, now seemingly ready for the playoffs, played their last game of the season and emerged victorious against the Wolfpack with a score of 26 to 13. The Mudcats' offense was led by Sean Brannon and Doug Johnson, both batted .1000. They collectively accumulated 7 RBIs. Mark Johnson contributed significantly with 3 doubles and going 5/6. Matt Alberti, Terry Pryor, and Evans Kwok all went 4/5, with a combined total of 12 RBIs. Notably, Evans hit his second home run of the year. On the defensive side. Joe Sorechi delivered an exceptional pitching performance, while Terry Pryor, Mark Johnson, Sean Brannon, and Tim Larson all made remarkable plays in the infield. In the outfield, Selwyn Quan demonstrated his exceptional coverage skills, while Mike Smith executed an extraordinary catch by reaching up and catching a fly ball that everyone thought had gone over his head.

Outlaws- The Outlaws again got off to a great start, scoring 5 runs in the 1st inning and remained in the lead for the entire game. The team batting average was .766! Perfect at the plate were Jeff Beresini (two rbi's), Bob Frey (three doubles, 4 rbi's), David Gerds (hit the cycle and 3 rbi's), Dave Lagman (one double, two rbi's) and John McCown (two doubles, one rbi). Defensive highlights provided by Bob Frey grabbing balls up the middle multiple times while pitching to double off runners at second and batters at first. Malia Frey and Barry Walter volunteered to play for the Cardinals who were short players.

Rovers The Rovers came back in the bottom of the 9th to beat the Warriors 27-26. Our entire team contributed to score 27 runs for the final game of the regular season. Eric Pruette delivered the game winning single that plated 2 runs for the victory. Rover's top hitters were: Stephfawn Thompson went 6-7 and 4 RBIs 4, Tony Camillo going 5-5 with 3 doubles and 5 RBIs, Dennis Romero going 5-7 with 3 triples, a double, and 4 RBIs, Brian Wong going 5-6 and 1 RBI, and Cary Mitsuyoshi going 6-7 with an HR, a double and 3 RBIs. Mark Narciso pitched awesomely and also had several key hits and 4 RBIs. Rovers, we need to be our BEST for the playoffs!

Warriors- Warriors lost a heart breaker to the Rovers. Hats off to Tony and his crew on a great comeback! Danny Bejarano and Levalea Faleafine (MVP La'i!) were both perfect on the day with Danny also scoring 5 runs. Tom Knab also had a big day at the plate with a grand slam, a double with 5 runs scored and 6 RBIs. Bob Bohannon and Randy Garber both showed little signs of rust as they both had 3 hits apiece.

Wolfpack- Best wishes to everyone in the playoffs
