Rovers 17 – Outlaws 15

Warriors 28 – Wolfpack 18

Managers Notes:

Do-Over-Rovers The Rovers got off to a surprisingly fast start, while the powerful Outlaws scored only 1 run in the first two innings. The Rovers led 17-7 after 4 innings. But then, Bob Frey came in to pitch and threw 5 shutout innings. Some of our best hitters started popping up to the infielders. Did Bob put a bat avoidance chip in the ball? Hey, that's not so outlandish. Some people believe Bill Gates put chips in our vaccines! Our hitting stars were Danny Bejarano, 3 for 4, with 3 runs scored and 3 RBIs, with La'i Faleafine and Mark Narciso both also going 3 for 4. Jean Chew, Ellen Seiji, and Tom Wagon seller were each 2 for 3. Collectively, the 3 women were 7 for 10, hitting several sharp line drives. Ben Brack made the defensive play of the game, racing into center field and reaching out to catch a 300' fly ball hit by Bob Frey. Overall, the Rovers played good defense and won 17-15. Mark Narciso got the win and the save, with the Rovers clinging to a 2-run lead in the bottom of the 9th.

Outlaws The Rovers scored early and often in this one as they surged ahead 12-1 going into the bottom of the third. After four innings, the score was 17-7. Then, the Outlaws defense and pitching began to shine as the Rovers were held scoreless for the rest of the game. The Outlaws however, only scored in two of the final five innings and could only muster a single base runner in the 9th inning, missing a golden opportunity for the miraculous comeback win - that was just not meant to be. Outlaw's hitting stars: Mark C. was 3 for 3, and a walk. Marc R. was 2 for 2, and 2 walks. John was 3 for 4, 3 doubles, and 5 RBI. Mike was 3 for 4, 2 Doubles and a Triple. Bob was 3 for 4, double, and a triple. Tom was 3 for 4 from the leadoff spot. Balt was 2 for 3. Malia and Rich were both 2 for 4.

Raiders Bye week
