PRIME TIME 19 BRONCOS 18

OLDEN BEARS 18 ROWDYS 11

Managers Notes:

Broncos- The Broncos faced a prime-time matchup this week, with both teams neck and neck throughout the game. After two innings, the score was tied at 5-5. By the fourth inning, the score had risen to 7-7. In the sixth inning, the score remained tied at 10-10. Jeff Hall was an absolute force at third base, making incredible catches and preventing the opposing team from scoring. Roy Camillo made a fantastic catch in left field, and Gil Jess pitched an outstanding game. Despite Jeff Hall's impressive performance, going 5-for-5, Jim Dietrich's 5-for-6, Chris Cooper's 4-for-6, and Don Salazar breakout game went 3-for-5, the Broncos couldn't muster enough runs to secure a victory. They ultimately lost to the prime-time team with a score of 19-18.

Diamonds- BYE

Rowdys- A disappointing performance by the Rowdys today. The team batting average was only .558, a big drop from last week. Runs were scored in 6 of the innings but not enough to keep up with the Bears. Perfect at the plate were Roger Gonzalez and Rich Jovel. Barry Chin and Nick Halatsis each drove in 3 of the rbi's. A defensive highlight was a double play by Joe Figueroa playing second base. Rich Jovel pitched the entire game.

The Bears - Cubs out hit the Rowdy's 18 to 11. The Big Hitters were Bob Sylvia going 4 for 4, 2B, and 4 RBI's, Carl Liljedahl was 4 for 4, 2 RBI's. Mike Mooney hit a HR, with 2 RBI's. Tim Fredrick, Orvin Heidinger, Brad Bader, Cindy Widger and Pat Keisling all went 3 for 4, Orvin and Tim F had Doubles. Defensively, Brad Bader had a great fielding day at shortstop. Orvin, Mike and Pat had nice catches in the outfield. Again Special Thanks to Joe Faris for keeping score and Ray Johnson for rooting Bear - Cubs on. "THANK YOU TO ALL"

Prime Time- Thanks to Mace, David, and Brian for helping out today; they contributed to a 37 hit barrage. Leading the way was Tony(4-7), Judith (5-6), and Tom (4-6). We had a number of defense miscues, but we overcame those with good stops and throw outs. Good job for those that came out to play. Heal up guys we still have to get ready for the playoffs.
