Managers Notes:

Broncos- The Bronco's galloped to their first win with good plays by Don Keller at Rover and Debbie Hullings-Le at second base. We had lots of offense led by Randy Cobb was 4 for 4 as was Jim Dietrich. Gill Jess, John Ironside and Roy Camillo were all 3 for 3. Jerry Green was 2 for 2 with two sacrifice fly balls. Jeff Hall was 3 for 4 and Debbie Hullings-Le was 1 for 2 with two walks. Doug Johnson was 2 for 3. Gil Jess pitched a good game too. Great team effort!

Diamonds- BYE

Olden Bears- The Bears played a solid game both offensive and defensive beating the Rowdys 19-9. The offensive stars were Pat Keisling goine 4 for 5 with 4 RBI's, Orvin Heidinger and Bob Sylvia 4 for 5 with 3 RBI's, Orvin had 2 doubles. Carl Liljedaul had 3 RBI's to go with his solid catching. Overall, Bears Great Game. Also, a special Thanks to our score keeper Joe Farias, Thank You Joe.

Prime Time- The Broncos came hitting. The PrimeTime defense could not get in the way of there offense. The Primetime offense could not string any hitting until late in the game. Pauli take some time to heal up. The batting practice on Monday in Fremont could help outfor some.

Rowdys- The good news is that everyone got at least one hit and the Rowdys scored 3 runs in one of the innings. The bad news is that we didn't get enough hits to make it a close game. Joe Figueroa went 3-3 and Roger Gonzalez, Nick Halatsis and Barry Walter all went 3-4. Levalea Faleafine and Joe each had 2 rbi's. Joe and Barry Chin made multiple good catches in the outfield. Pitching duties were shared by Max Benavidez, Walt McQuesten and Rich Jovel.
