Broncos 17 – Rowdys 13

Twins 22 – Olden Bears 12

Managers Notes:

Broncos- Once again the Bronco's, who were led by Tim Larson's great pitching and defense, along with Chris Cooper, Lucio Cosare jr's, outstanding plays in the outfield, and the Mighty Bronco's hitting machine, went on to beat the Rowdy's 17 to 13. Top Hitters were Tim Larson 4/4, Steve Castillo, Chris Cooper, Dave Harding, Doug Johnson, Bob Patton, and Tony Teixeira all going 3/4 with Carla Francis 2/3.

Olden Bears- In a game that was close for 6 innings the Bears fell again to the Twins 22-12. Big hit of the day was a massive home run by Jay Sankey driving in three runs. With a new bat Dale Walker went 3 for 4 and made two great catches in the outfield. Ginny Mayer, who brings great treats every game, was 2 for 4 for the day. Players with 2-4 for the day were Ginny, Don Pelland, Charlie Aragon, Steve Brown, John Ironside, Lee Schreiner and Gill Jess. Our day is down the road

Rowdys- Rowdys came out strong in the first 4 innings, gave way to the Broncos in the 5th through 8th, then valiently tried to catch up in the 9th. This seems to be a pattern in recent games. Rowdys hitting highlights included 4 hits by David Owles and Tony Trebaol, 3 hits and a walk by Rich Jovel and two hits and a walk by Tye Peyton.

Twins- The Twins played one of their best games in defeating the Olden Bears 22-12. It was, easily, one of their best defensive games as they held the Bears to only 1 run over the last 5 innings. Paul Vartanian made the play of the game. Playing deep left field against one of the Bears' power hitters he charged a hard hit base hit, made a perfect throw to his cutoff man who threw a strike to 2nd base to beat the speedy runner, for a big out in the 7th inning. On offense, the Twins scored at least 2 runs in every inning. Big hitters: Steve Ortiz, suffering a bad leg injury, still went 4/4; Bob Sylvia 4 hit (3 runs); Robert Standley 4 hits (3B, 3 runs, 5 RBI); 3 hits each for Bev VanGundy, Cruz Cisneros (3 runs), Ray Johnson & Tim Frederick (3 runs, 2 RBI).
