The New Roseland Hospital CEO Given Congressional Honor

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE —Chicago, Illinois, November 2, 2018

The New Roseland Hospital CEO Tim Egan will be honored with a Bipartisan Congressional Salute during the Indian American Medical Association of Illinois' 38th Annual Gala on November 17, 2018.

"There are many challenges in the rapidly changing paradigm of healthcare delivery," said Indian American Medical Association of Illinois President Sreenivas Reddy, M.D. "President Tim Egan has been instrumental in guiding Roseland Community Hospital through these changes while ensuring Roseland Community Hospital delivers exceptional healthcare to the community they serve."

Egan began his tenure at the Chicago Southside Safety Net Hospital as Chief Restructuring Officer in July of 2013 and was officially named CEO in January of 2014.

The IAMA-IL event will feature U.S. Congressman Danny K. Davis (D-IL), U.S. Congressman Peter Roskam (R-IL), and U.S. Congressman Raja Krishnamoothri who will all honor President Egan's dedication and leadership.

"Mr. Egan's dedication to insuring that the Roseland community has access to the best high quality health services is the reason he is so deserving of this recognition," said New RCH Board Chairman Dr. Rupert M. Evans. "His leadership goes beyond the walls of the hospital and he demonstrated true servant leadership to the entire Chicago health service landscape. The New Roseland Community Board of Directors applauds Mr. Egan's recognition by the Indian American Medical Association of Illinois."

IAMA-IL is a non-profit professional organization of Physicians of Indian Origin with a membership over 1,200 physicians in the State of Illinois. IAMA-IL is committed to professional excellence in quality patient care, education and community healthcare.
