

Radiologist

Bayelsa Diagnostic Centre

Yenagoa, Bayelsa State, Nigeria

Job Description:

Bayelsa Diagnostic Centre, a US owned, leading private health facility in Nigeria, is seeking a Radiologist to lead their radiology team. The Radiologist will be responsible for performing and interpreting a variety of radiological studies including x-rays, MRIs, CTs, mammograms, ultrasounds, hysterosalpingograms, etc. The radiologist will supervise a team of one radiologist and four radiology techs in this rapidly growing diagnostic centre. To learn more about Bayelsa Diagnostic Centre visit <http://bayelsadiagnostic.com/>

Activities/Responsibilities:

- Recommend, perform, and interpret a variety of radiological studies including x-rays, MRIs, CTs, mammograms, ultrasounds, hysterosalpingograms, etc.
- Work with Telerad Tech teleradiology system
- Interact with patients to explain their radiology procedures and answer questions as needed.
- Supervise a team of one radiologist and four radiology techs to ensure high levels of quality and productivity
- Advise other Bayelsa Diagnostic Centre physicians on the best use of radiology procedures for diagnosis
- Work with the radiology team and vendors to ensure the proper maintenance and functioning of all radiology equipment
- Management and quality assurance activities
- Conduct necessary documentation
- Occasional supervision of medical residents and radiology fellows
- Occasional radio interviews to educate the community on general health issues and the role of radiology in medicine and advances in radiology
- Occasional talks to communities on general health issues and the role of radiology in medicine and advances in radiology
- Occasional attendance and presentation at Nigerian national medical and radiology conferences
- Hours: Monday through Friday 8am-4pm, Saturday 8am-2pm. No call.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary with productivity incentives. Half of salary paid in US dollars and half in Naira
- Malpractice insurance provided

Corvus Health

- Bayelsa Diagnostic Center will assist with licensing for applicants not currently licensed in Nigeria
- Four weeks paid leave
- Housing provided with cook and security
- Transportation provided

Requirements:

1. Applicants must have completed an accredited radiology fellowship (in the country of their training) and be currently licensed to practice in at least one country with a clean malpractice record and strong recommendations.
2. Five years of experience preferred
3. Familiarity with electronic medical records
4. Strong soft skills including good bedside manner, communication skills, ability to handle complex situations, etc.
5. Good spoken and written English skills