How some muslims interpret their holy book (quaran):

‘Doomsday’ (Judgment day) will come when:

- People start wearing shoes
- Buildings start reaching the skies
- The sun rises in the west

There are no other religions on this planet who predict these kinds of ludicrous sayings/interpretations. But, of course as a muslim you are allowed to lie if it will recruit members of these religious beliefs. And this seems to be well used (in several European nations). It is basically called manipulation. By this meaning: every muslim who manipulates is hereby considered as a sociopath or/and a narcissist. As Mr. Toffler once said: “The illiterate of the 21st century are not those who can not read and write, but those who can not learn, unlearn, and relearn.”

Christianity does also have these kinds of groups. Westboro Baptist Church as an example. The only difference between these two "religious groups" is how many they are, fighting for their specific view. Basically a f joke, all of them. Totally unaware of how spirituality actually works and more important: what matters for humanity. It seems like a zombie group of uneducated people. Turning to violence as a result of a soul who can not express itself in the correct manner. The Allah does not exist & our universe does not operate according to their beliefs.

This topic has risen in the late years, especially from those who migrate away from highly underdeveloped countries such as ... many, in the middle east. Hopefully there will come a religious high standard debate in the future.

Question one: Why do the United Kingdom and Germany (private companies within) develop jackets that are both knife proof and bullet proof?

Question two: Which other religion on Earth would ever try to take over another nation's majorist view on other people's belief system when their origin is located far away (in the 20s, and not the colonies)?

Question three: How underdeveloped is the religion who has such an agenda?

Question four: What kind of religion preaches for recruitment in the 20s on behalf of riots?

Question five: How underdeveloped are your brain according to your amygdala if you believe that everyone else is wrong? And where do you learn that kind of behaviour when you basically should be aware of technology?

An example: You are a christian or a catholic, but you know better according to religion and spirituality, that to force a belief system over on others is basically called mental abuse. But you will replace every mosque with churches.

Good luck, all of the muslims who do not understand and respect other people as a result of bad parenting creating a situation where egoistic stupidity starts to create violence. It is highly recommended that every European country start doing research and surveys. Mr. Soros should also basically be sentenced to 'close to death' for a hidden agenda destroying so many beautiful nations with rich history according to what actually has worked for millions of people. It is highly important to understand that not every person of Islamic beliefs has this way of thinking.
