

How the conscious connection to matter observes you

Possible guideline:

- Conflict dilation Doc 6.1

There exists a realm. A realm of beings. If we are to enter the next level, a higher consciousness level is needed. If you can connect to thee Source it will try to guide you. Thee Allah will torture you as a result of a belief system gone wrong. On behalf of muslim fellows, save your prayer. It is your own religion who is so into judgment day and how your Allah will save you later on in life at the other side of what you are worshipping so much that it totally f* up pretty many other people living on this exact same planet. That is not what's called love for mother Earth.

The NV: A short introduction

In combination with iacte Ltd. it operates as a part time supervisor for the Norwegian State Government. By this meaning tolerance of extreme left wing decisions, which basically soon can be called right wing compared to their own plan on defending a frame of possibilities (which does not exist), and it also exists a slack of possibilities. And also because maybe there is never too much left, the left is the best! F joke. 2026 is a clear sign of a circus.

So, if you want guidance from an entity who is obviously everywhere, you will find it within the gravitational field.

Question: If a group of high hierarchical leftists who's previously done something affecting you today in some form of a negative for either you or your family and this group has now changed parts of their belief system, who cares?

Possible answer: Those who fight against it, those who might be manipulated or maybe those who are misinformed

The NV/iacte Ltd. does not sign anything.

Hans Moen obviously/probably bargained with the devil, when he asked a man at his counter to sign a document on behalf of assistance for the counter. His own declaration of death in other words. Maybe he converted to Islam
