

The mirror-graphic principle 2023 // Earth

Existence itself can be viewed from several parts. CQ is involved. For you to experience a course matter existence there are two of 'you'. If you want to consider the other side as your soul, as your guide, as your spirit or as your enemy, is solely up to thee self.

Needed guidelines:

- Yin & Yang Doc 2.2
- Consciousness Quotient Doc 2.1 (still waiting for the Norwegian court system)
- Religions and spiritualism Doc 1.1

Many of the human beings walking on Earth refer to life as karma-based. You as a being function in this manner: the energy given to you, and the energy used, is split into three parts. The mind, the soul and the body. The exact percentage relation between those three are uncertain in 2023. The connection to the cosmos is within the soul. The mind is its tool and your body is operating the symbiotic relationship between the 'two of you'. As an experiencer.

Mirror-graphic principle === The self

A spiritual ware-fare can be considered as a peace-fare also. It depends on your perception and your amygdala. The peace-fare does not actually exist, because of probability advances. But you can still make your belief system operate around such a point of view around your experiencing reality. It creates the self, creating the reality.
