

To put a muslim back in his righteous place/area is closer to impossible due to intelligence level as an outcome of beliefs and parenthood. The extremists within this religion, is retardism.

- This document can also be seen as a stabilizer due to a result of governmentalism gone wrong, globally.

An example: The court case and meetings regarding your case or whatever you are fighting for will not release or give you surveillance data from those court meetings. The so-called (stupidity of) 'Sharia Law' does not allow it

- Because you are allowed to lie

In the 20s there has been a rising mentality towards what many call extremism. Extremism exists but this is information you have to search for as a result of an 'Elite' who has lost control. It is guaranteed that this is not planned but as mentioned humans are underdeveloped. By this statement you can reflect on the issue that the 'Elite' is underdeveloped, so what is a muslim doing on this planet? Anyways, they are here. Obviously trying to infiltrate as a little shitkid in a grown man's world. They are way too underdeveloped to get any way in their goals for reaching the 'Allah'. And since they are so much more underdeveloped than the rest of religious people and groups, they do not understand development, technology and basically what we can refer to as predictions towards a healthy and positive future for the planet as a whole. The Islamic religion does not contribute to any positive development besides themselves and their own interpretations of the Quran. The last thing needed on this planet, in this situation.

Question one: Is it a specific influential Imam, or several, in the past who has created the operating beliefs creating the situation we now see in Europe, or is it the holy book itself which has been misinterpreted for decades?

Question two: If you are not a Muslim or of origin from the Middle East, would you feel safer around people or black people than a muslim due to the terrorist attacks done, by Islam, for several decades or more?

Iacte Ltd. works closely with the Norwegian Vatican (often referred to as the NV) and GEC (Globalized Earth Connections), and will hereby always have in mind and every word written, that the development on Earth (La Terra) is not healthy. If it is not healthy for a population of over eight billion people, Islam must die. And it will happen, if the council approves of such a matter. And if you are intelligent enough, blame your fellow muslims..

Yes, it is a guaranteed spiritual ongoing war. And to feel pity in a situation like this, you are also underdeveloped. The difference is that every other religion than Islam will never infiltrate like a little shitkid. It is called conscious normal polite behavior without manipulation in the back of your head. Which all of these Imams lack, due to an agenda set by, again, a little shitkid religion, and the pedophile prophet Muhammed.. F joke & a circus.

Now, let's see how the most underdeveloped religious people act according to this document. War will come.

If you have any idea of what Iacte Ltd. does and contributes to, and you disagree with these words as a muslim, you can go and wash the restrooms used by women all over the world. And if not, I will make you. Just so you learn
