Women upskilled and provided with job opportunities

At Kutumb's Women Empowerment Program, our aim is to support economically less-privileged women from rural areas and urban slums as well as revive traditional art and handicrafts by training and encouraging budding artisans through our Skill Development Programs.

We extend the training and support to more and more women, we hope to better the lives of multitudes of families, as empowering a woman means empowering a family.

Women Empowerment Programs

- ✔ Sewing Training
- ✔ Beautician Training
- ✔ Project Sanskriti

An awareness program was organised by Women Empowerment Wing of Kutumb at Kutumb Village, Chiurapur to celebrate the International Women's Day. Economically less-privileged women from rural areas and urban slums as well as village girls participated in that. The program was aimed at to have an assessment of their issues and skillsets.

Community girls got their hands on experience in selling and marketing handicrafts which they made.

Rural women get appreciated for using their skillset and utilising women empowerment program in best possible way.

„Kahani Changemakers ki ” Initiative

Kutumb startete eine neue Initiative, um eine Open-House-Diskussion mit renommierten Philanthropen, Lehrern und NGOs zu starten und Menschen dazu zu inspirieren, ihre Geschichten zu teilen und darüber nachzudenken, wie das sozioökonomische Gleichgewicht in der Gesellschaft verbessert und diese zu einem besseren Ort gemacht werden kann.
