CONNECTIONS PROFESSIONAL

We are a group of professionals who work with neurodivergent children and youth, and their families. We come from various fields of practice, including social work, psychotherapy, occupational therapy, speech-language pathology, and education.

We offer a safe space for those who are practising or wishing to explore a neuro-affirming, developmental, relationship-based approach in their work.

Meetings include discussion, support, professional collaboration and learning, and resource sharing and development.

No cost to attend. All are welcome!
