Subject: the American dream

Friend: I grew up in public housing on the west side of Savannah, Georgia. I had 11 brothers and sisters – and while my family was short on money, we were long on love and faith.

My parents showed me the meaning of hard work – and always told us kids we could do anything we put our minds to. Thanks to their support, I became the first in my family to earn a college degree. Now, thanks to this grassroots team, I'm fighting in the Senate to make sure every child can achieve their American dream.

But I'll be honest: With CNN calling me the most vulnerable Senate Democrat up for reelection – and time running out before our midnight fundraising deadline – the only way I can keep this seat blue and win our critical fight for justice is with your urgent help. So I'm personally asking, friend: Will you donate \$5 or more right now to help me defend my seat, keep the Senate blue, and secure a better, brighter future for Georgia and our country?

Thank you for being a part of this movement. I'm honored to have your support.

– Sen. Raphael Warnock
