When you donate to the DNC -- whether it's because you believe people should have the freedom to make their own reproductive choices or for another reason -- your generosity does not go unnoticed.

I have been involved in the fight for reproductive justice my entire adult life, professionally and personally. Over the years, I've watched Republicans inch closer and closer to overturning Roe v. Wade. Make no mistake: This is a moment anti-choice extremists have been working towards for decades.

Republicans have spent incalculable dollars and energy winning state legislative seats, and nominating and confirming partisan justices to the Supreme Court for this exact purpose. Defeating anti-choice Republicans will take each and every one of us stepping up.

When you donate to the DNC, your generosity gives us the resources to provide voter protection services nationwide, supports state parties building our political infrastructure, and allows us to invest heavily in data and technology that help Democrats compete on the ground.

This work is necessary to maintain our important majorities in the Senate and the House, to keep Democratic governors in office, and to elect state and local officials who will fight back against the slate of anti-choice legislation we know is coming.

The future we're building together -- that represents our shared values as Democrats -- requires that we continue investing in and fighting for real progress in America. By making critical investments now, you'll help elect Democrats all across the country who will fight to bring us closer to the world we all want to live in.

We need to elect as many Democrats as we can -- from the statehouse to the Senate -- to secure our rights. Will you stay in the fight, MICHAEL?

Thank you,

Lauren Williams
