

Mrs M

Find your next ADVENTURE

Summer Strolls, Cream Tea Trundles, Well-being Weekends, Winter Walks & Talks, Midsummer Meanders and much more for you and your dog

Walking the Wolds Events 2025

You can book our events by going to our special events page, where you will find options to add any special requests. Plus, if you join as a Member of our Bill and Mrs M Club first you'll receive some great discounts and extra options on all of our events

Our First Human and Canine Wellbeing Weekend - 26th - 27th April

Join us for our human and canine wellbeing weekend hosted at Field House Coffee Barn, near Tibthorpe in the heart of the beautiful Yorkshire Wolds.

You can come along for either one day or both plus take advantage of added extras such as picnic lunches, dog pack-ups, and camping at a 10% discount for 2 night's camping (enquire for details)

Sunday 27th April - All Day to 3pm

Day Two

9:00 - Canicross Taster Sessions (optional) or aromatherapy session

10:00 - Breakfast - either a healthy fruit salad & yogurt or a not so healthy bacon buttie

10:30 - 5-mile walk from Huggate along the Hawold Bridle Road and Millington Dale. - bring a picnic

14:00 - Return for tea and cake (to be purchased on the day)

14:30 - Rogue Wolves Training - 'Breed fulfilment & scent work' talk & demo

15:15 - 'Swim and Trim' - Fun Pool talk

15:30 - Pawsitivity - 'Canine Rehabilitation & Massage' plus hands-on palpation checks for your dogs

Pilates - £5 / Picnic lunches - £12 / Dog pack-ups - £3.50 - GF, Veg & V diets catered for

Saturday 26th April - All Day from 9.00am

Day One

9:00 - Breakfast - either a healthy fruit salad & yogurt or a not so healthy bacon buttie

10:00 - Huggate Heads Walk - 9 miles of the Wonderful Wolds - bring a picnic

15:30 Relax and Stretch Pilates with Laura (optional - £5 extra) - humans and dogs welcome or tea and cake! (to be purchased on the day)

16:15 - 'What is Canicross?' with Fizz O'Neil

17:00 - Nicki King - 'Healthy Eating & Nutrition' - one for us humans but dogs welcome

17:45 - Passion 4 Pets - 'Grooming tips' - hand-stripping & getting your pups ready for grooming

18:30: Tea - Pulled pork, fries, salad buffet & fruit pie and ice cream! (maybe not so healthy!)

Afterwards time for a chat, a drink and a romp in the enclosed paddock next to the coffee barn

Tickets - £75.00 - including 2 walks, all the sessions (Pilates £5 extra), 2 x breakfasts and Saturday supper

Wednesday 7th May - 5.30pm to 9pm

Farthings Vinyard - Spring Evening Stroll

Take a 2.5 mile walk with us from Farthings Vineyard in Fimber along the disused railway track-bed before heading over permissive paths to the Open Access land in Wan Dale and some ancient earthworks as well as the mysteriously named Lady Graves, before heading back to the vineyard for an exclusive wine tasting event with supper.

(please enquire for costs if you are a none-drinker but would still like to come along).

Includes wine tasting and supper - £35.00

Thursday 15th May - 3pm to 7.30pm

The Mile - Spring Evening Stroll & Training Session

How do you fancy a session with Leigh, owner of Rogue Wolves K9 Dog Training Academy, at The Mile, before the chance to try out your new skills on a 5-mile stroll up into Grimthorpe Wood and back? Then round your evening off with a pie, pea and mash supper.

Includes supper & session (award-winning Dan's pie, mash & peas) - £22.50 inc hot drink (other drinks available)

Tuesday 24th June - 2pm to 9pm

Midsummer Meander

Head out with us on the longest day of the year on a fabulous 7.8-mile route from Fridaythorpe and into Thixen Dale, taking in a lovely woodland stretch along Wayrham Dale, crossing to Huggate Wold before heading back for a very welcome evening barbecue courtesy of Seaways over a fascinating flora & fauna talk.

Includes a barbecue (3 items off the barbecue, salad, coleslaw, chips, and a drink. (hot, soft, or a beer) - £26.00

Sunday 13th July - 10am to 4pm

Bishop Wilton - Afternoon Tea Trundle

This lovely 8.7-mile route takes us along the Minster Way to enjoy some fine views over Bishop

Wilton before heading back to the Mile, Pocklington via Bishop Wilton Beck, for a scrummy afternoon tea.

Includes afternoon Tea (finger sandwiches, savoury treat, scone with jam & cream, mini cakes and a hot drink)- £27.50

Friday 25th July - 9.30am to 12pm

Field House - Breakfast Bimble

Join us for another popular Breakfast Bimble - this time 4-miles taking in the Wold Ranger's Way plus breakfast butties at Field House Coffee Barn.

Includes breakfast butties & a hot drink - £20.50

Monday 4th August - 5pm to 9pm

Laurel Vines - Summer Evening Stroll

Another summer stroll around the waterways of Aike, this time a 5.2-mile walk that reaches Arram before heading back for our hearty supper and the odd glass of wine (or drink of your choice).

Includes supper (tasting board & a glass of wine) - £27.50

Sunday 17th August - 9.30am to 2pm

Millington - Summer Sunday Lunch Saunter

Starting and ending in Millington, this fabulous 5.7-mile route explores Given Dale up to the tiny St Ethelburga's Church, then travels along the Chalkland Way before some quiet roads back to the Gait Inn for a slap up Sunday Lunch. Includes lunch (2 courses) - drink purchased separately - £35.00

Saturday 13th September - All Day from 2pm

Walking & History Weekend

Day One - This year's mini-festival kicks off with a fabulous 4.3-mile walk around the medieval deserted village of Wharram Percy, prehistoric earthworks in Deep Dale and a section of the Malton and Driffield Railway which closed in 1958. This will be followed tea and a talk - more details to follow. Saturdays costs tbc

Walking & History Weekend

Sunday 14th September - All day to 3pm

Day Two starts and ends in Kirby Grindalythe. After a breakfast of bacon rolls (or vegetarian alternative) and a hot or cold drink, we will explore a 5.3-mile route that encounters the magical Gypsy Race stream as well as the medieval deserted village of Mowthorpe, before heading back to St Andrews Church, one of Sykes' Churches. for a talk by Louise Hampson, local historian, plus tea and cake.

Includes Sunday (breakfast, tea, coffee & cakes and the Talk) - £30.00

Friday 17th October - 10am to 1pm

Foston-on-the-Wolds - Winter Wander & Talk

We will be revisiting Foston-on-the-Wolds and the lovely Side Oven Bakery for our next wander, where we can enjoy a 2.5-mile walk before heading back to find out about some autumn traditions over a warming homemade lunch.

Includes lunch (soup, freshly baked bread & cakes, local cheese & drink) & Talk - £35.00

Saturday 25th October - 10am to 3pm

Wold Newton - "You are Made of Star Stuff" - Winter Wander

Join us for a 5.1-mile wander around the High Wolds near Fordon, where we will come across ancient remnants of the past, before heading back to All Saints Church Wold Newton, for some welcome refreshments and a chance to find about the Wold Newton Meteorite of 1795 and other interesting cosmic related stuff in a talk by Dr Andrew Norton, of the Open University.

Refreshments & contribution to Wold Newton Church funds - £17.50

Sunday 16th November - 9.30am to 3pm

Winter Sunday Lunch Saunter

Explore the paths around Tophill Low Nature Reserve & the River Hull on this 7.6-mile walk, before heading back for a slap up 2-course Sunday Lunch and glass of wine at the Laurel Vines Vineyard, Aike, Driffield.

Includes Sunday Lunch (2 courses & a glass of wine or alternative) - £42.50