2025 Annual Report

Family Promise

OF WESTERN NEW YORK

OUR MISSION

We prevent and end homelessness for families with children.

We work alongside families facing homelessness to provide housing solutions and tailored support so that they can find their pathway home.

WE SERVE CHILDREN -

Kids are at the heart of what we do - 75% of the people we serve are ages 0-18.

WE KEEP FAMILIES TOGETHER -

Homelessness often forces families apart, but our programs quickly stabilize families so they can stay together.

WE HELP WHEN YOU NEED IT -

Our programs include Eviction Prevention, Shelter Diversion, Temporary Housing and Stabilization.

WE DO MORE THAN JUST HOUSING -

We rebuild credit, help families get jobs, connect them to medical and mental health providers and enroll kids in school.

Note from the Director

2025 was a huge growth year for Family Promise of Western New York!

We set the following goals for the organization at the close of 2024:

- First, to achieve better outcomes and increase our success rate. In 2024, we struggled to move families out of our emergency shelter program into permanent housing, and we needed to identify ways to do better.
- Second, with our expansion plans on the East Side hitting roadblocks, we wanted to pivot and identify ways to immediately address the sharp rise in family homelessness even without a second location.

And look at how we did!

80 → 70

164 → 302

We achieved these incredible outcomes in several ways...

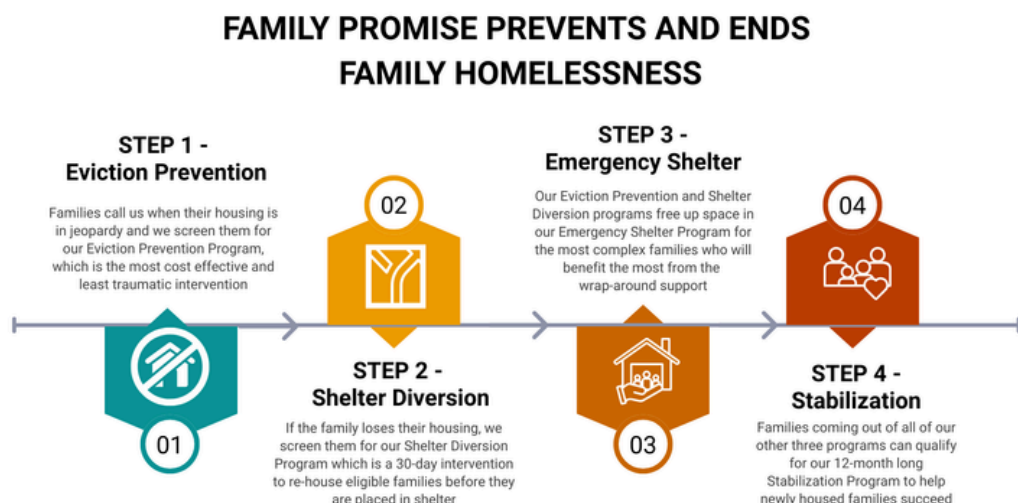

First, with the help of seed funding, we expanded our programs in 2025 by adding Eviction Prevention and Shelter Diversion and Stabilization to our existing Emergency Shelter program.

- Our Eviction Prevention Program works with families who are at risk of eviction but are still housed. We provide critical, short-term support to prevent the crisis of homelessness. This intervention is by far the most cost-effective and reduces the trauma that housing instability can cause.
- Our Shelter Diversion program works with families who are on the doorstep of the homeless system but have enough income or a housing voucher to secure their next apartment. This is an intensive, short-term intervention of only 30 days designed to help families quickly return to permanent housing before they are placed in an emergency shelter.

With these additional programs, we are able to help more families sooner during a housing instability crisis, preventing or minimizing the impact of homelessness. It also means that the most complex families are entering our Emergency Shelter Program, where they can benefit from the wraparound support we offer.

- Finally, our Next Level Stabilization program is open to any family who has been housed through our other programs. Next Level is a 12-month intervention that helps families set long-term goals around employment, education, credit, and financial literacy, guiding them toward self-sufficiency.

The graphic below illustrates the dynamic nature of our new programs and how they build on one another, allowing us to support families at any stage of a housing crisis:

Second, our growing team was able to start specializing in order to get really good at what they did, meaning:

- Our Housing Coordinator was consistently out in the community meeting with landlords to identify available housing and get families into homes faster.
- Our Stability Coordinator completed extensive training to launch our partnership with the Western New York Integrated Care Collaborative to fund eviction prevention.
- With support from the Tower Foundation, we added a Mental Wellness Counselor to our team to provide in-house counseling.
- Our new Chef took things to the level level with the launch of cooking-specific programming for our residents, including “Little Foodies” - focused cooking classes with the children living in our shelter program that are in high demand!
- We added a new van to our fleet thanks to the support of James and Linda Beardi, Scott Bieler, our friends at West Herr Cares, and the generosity of our donors!

A final goal emerging from 2024 was to become more strategic about how to expand our footprint in the city and open a second facility. To that end, in early 2025 we partnered with Hallmark Planning and Development, a minority urban planning consulting firm specializing in Community Planning, Public Engagement, Placemaking and Commercial Real Estate, to help us secure a second location. Through a Phase 1 project with Hallmark, we created a Stakeholder Advisory Committee of community leaders - pastors, educators, nonprofit leaders and commercial leaders - who have been working behind the scenes over this past year to identify potential locations for our project. We look forward to sharing more progress updates in the near future!

As we close out this year, I am deeply grateful to my team and to all of our supporters who show up every day for at-risk families in our community. Thank you for your hard work, your support, and your faith in our mission. Together, we are making Buffalo stronger!

Sincerely,
Luanne Firestone, Executive Director
