YOUR NEXT CONNECTION STARTS HERE

H4L brings together clinicians, healthcare leaders, researchers, and innovators to explore how people can live healthier, longer lives.

Following our inaugural conference in Edmonton, H4L returns in Vancouver with new opportunities to learn, showcase solutions, and build partnerships.

For 2027, we are using attendee and exhibitor feedback to strengthen the program and create more opportunities for meaningful interaction.

Join us as a sponsor or exhibitor to introduce your organization to a focused healthcare community.

This year, we expect 400 + in-person attendees across 2 days in addition to our virtual attendees.

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada
In-person conference with virtual participation

A GLOBAL SUMMIT

Vancouver is one of Canada's leading centres for healthcare, biotechnology, research, and innovation, making it an ideal setting for conversations about the future of longevity and preventive health.

Home to world-class universities, research institutions, life sciences companies, and a thriving health technology sector, Vancouver brings together the people and ideas driving the next generation of healthcare.

Beyond the conference, attendees can experience one of the world's most beautiful and livable cities. Surrounded by mountains, ocean, and urban greenspace, Vancouver offers an exceptional setting for learning, networking, and exploration.

WHERE INNOVATION MEETS DEMAND

H4L brings together healthcare professionals, researchers, innovators, and consumers interested in the future of health and longevity. Our 2026 exhibitor hall sold out, and we're expanding from 10 to 20 booths for 2027 to meet growing demand and create even more opportunities for connection and visibility.

Exhibitors Include:

- Medical and clinical solutions
- Pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, and nutraceuticals
- Wearables, AI, and health technology
- Fitness, recovery, and performance solutions
- Beauty, aesthetics, and skin health
- Lifestyle, sleep, and preventive health services
- Emerging longevity innovations

Bring solutions that connect with the questions healthcare professionals, leaders, and longevity-focused consumers are asking.

We welcome organizations of all sizes whose products, services, and technologies help people live longer, healthier lives.
