Australia

Experience Aboriginal Australia -- Find out how you can connect with the world's oldest living culture. Discover it the same way Aboriginal Australians have passed it down for at least 50,000 years - through art, dance, myths, music and the land itself. See Aboriginal art and contemporary dance in the cities. The original inhabitants of Australia, Aborigines were there for more than 40,000 years before European settlers brought disease and politics to the continent, severely endangering the Aborigines' distinct culture, language, and lifestyle.

Cairns is the gateway to Queensland's tropical north and the Great Barrier Reef. Here you are close to islands, coral reefs and the world's oldest surviving tropical rainforest. A provincial city, with a linear layout that runs south from Edmonton to Ellis Beach in the north, the city has recently experienced rapid growth, with suburbs taking over land previously used for sugar cane farming.

Sydney enjoys a relaxed outdoor and beach lifestyle, combined with arts and culture, fine food and wine, nature and cosmopolitan shopping and nightlife. Life in Sydney centres on the harbour. Ferry at Circular Quay for views of the Sydney Opera House and Sydney Harbour Bridge from the water. Darling Harbour is a favourite family leisure and entertainment precinct.

Weather in Australia -- Australia experiences temperate weather for most of the year but the climate can vary due to the size of our continent. Australia is also one of the driest continents on earth with an average annual rainfall of less than 600 millimetres. Like all countries in the southern hemisphere, Australia's seasons are opposite to those in the northern hemisphere. March to May is autumn

Tour Itinerary

New Zealand

Early Voyagers -- Over four hundred years before Christopher Columbus and the rest of Europe worried about falling off the edge of the world; Maori people voyaged thousands of miles across the vast unknown Pacific Ocean in small ocean-going canoes and became the first inhabitants of Aotearoa New Zealand. To this day, Maori culture is a core part of New Zealand's national identity. Māori were the first to arrive in New Zealand, journeying in canoes from Hawaiki about 1,000 years ago. A Dutchman, Abel Tasman, was the first European to sight the country but it was the British who made New Zealand part of their empire. Tour Itinerary

During the cruise, the knowledgeable and friendly skipper or nature guide will share with you their passion for the region.
