Top 10 reasons why travel advisors are even more valuable in today's travel industry...

Knowledge – Travel Advisors have spent the last 2 years learning and becoming experts on the changing landscape of travel post covid. Their value has increased dramatically during this past couple of years.

Peace of Mind – Travel Advisors will advise you of the best steps to take to protect you, and your travel investment. They also provide backup should something happen while on a trip.

Best Prices – Clients will benefit by getting the best value for their money from an industry expert who can offer the best recommendations!

Exclusive Offers – Only advisors are going to be in the know with extra special offers that are not available to the consumer directly.

Travel Expertise – Travel Advisors travel frequently themselves to be up on the new and unexpected changes. They are better to offer tailored expertise on destinations, hotels, tours, air, and cruises.

Time Savings – Do you know it takes a couple of weeks on average to plan a vacation? Travel advisors know who to contact to get the job done, saving a client hours of frustration from being put on hold or trying to figure out what current travel protocols are.

Multiple Options – Travel Advisors make sure each piece in their client's trip puzzle fits their specific needs. This truly is a service industry and a good travel advisor provides all the options that are the best fit for their clients need.

Industry Insiders – Travel Advisors are the first to know about new resorts or new itineraries for a travel package. They help their clients with the latest and greatest options.

Personalized Suggestions – Once a travel advisor gets to know their clients, they provide inside tips and recommendations for a vacation that is unforgettable!

Money Saving – the biggest myth is that using a travel agent costs more money. The truth is they can save you money and give you more value.

"Traveling is learning"
