Kuala Lumpur Malaysia

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner
Accommodation: Shangri-La Hotel Kuala Lumpur, Deluxe Double Room

Dip into Kuala Lumpur's abundant multi-cultural experiences on this half-day city tour. We start at Masjid Negara, one of the country's largest and most distinguished mosques before proceeding to Tugu Negara, a war memorial honouring those who perished in conflict. We also pass the Moorish-style Federal Court; the old Railway station, which is a striking piece of Mohammedan architecture; the Tudor-style Cricket Club and the King's Palace. The tour concludes at Thean Hou Temple situated in Robson Heights. This shrine is home to the patron Goddess Thean Hou of the Hainanese community. This striking six-tiered temple is regarded as one of the biggest Chinese temples in South-East Asia.
After the tour returning to hotel for rest and freshen-up. At the appointed time, meet your guide at the lobby and proceed for the Welcome Dinner.

National Monument (Tugu Negara):*
The National Monument is a sculpture that commemorates those who died in Malaysia's struggle for freedom, principally against the Japanese occupation during World War II and the Malayan Emergency, which lasted from 1948 until 1960. It is famous for the world's tallest bronze freestanding sculpture grouping.

--King's Palace (Istana Negara): The Istana Negara (the King's Palace) is the official residence of the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, the head of state of Malaysia, located along Jalan Duta in northern Kuala Lumpur. Many royal banquets and celebrations are held in this palace. Thousands of visitors come for the palace guard shift ceremony.

Kuala Lumpur - Malacca - Kuala Lumpur Malaysia

Transfer via:
Kuala Lumpur - Malacca, Private vehicle , Malacca - Kuala Lumpur, Private vehicle , arranged by CST

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Accommodation: Shangri-La Hotel Kuala Lumpur, Deluxe Double Room

Explore the rich heritage buildings, ancient landmarks and colonial structures of the historical city of Malacca, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Malacca is 150 km from Kuala Lumpur and for over a period of 400 years, it was colonised by the Portuguese, then the Dutch, followed by the British before Japanese occupation during World War Two. We visit the Dutch Squa re that features what is believed to be the oldest-surviving Dutch building in the East, Stadthuys, Christ Church and the Clock Tower which features the Queen Victoria Fountain.

We also see Cheng Hoon Teng, Malaysia's oldest functioning Chinese temple, founded in 1645 and Porta De Santiago, the gate to the Portuguese fortress La Formosa which was built in 1511. From here, we can reach St. Paul's Church Ruins where St. Francis Xavier was once buried. After lunch at a local restaurant, there is time to stroll around Jonker Street which is famous for its local antiques, boutiques and local handicrafts. After the tour, return to Kuala Lumpur for your overnight stay.

--Dutch Square: Dutch Square, also known as Red Square, is an area surrounded by red buildings featuring large windows and wrought iron hedges in the heart of Melaka city. Historically, they were offices of Dutch administration in colonial Malacca.

--Stadthuys: The largest building in Dutch Square is "Stadthuys," or 'town hall' in Dutch. This well-preserved Dutch colonial building, built in 1650, stands as a majestic red beacon of history and culture.

--Cheng Hoon Teng Temple: Cheng Hoon Teng Temple is Malaysia's oldest traditional Chinese temple, constructed in 1673, remaining a central place of worship for the Buddhist community in Melaka. Notable for its carved woodwork, the temple is dedicated to Kuan Yin, the goddess of mercy.

--Porta De Santiago: The Porta De Santiago (A Famosa) is one of the few oldest surviving remnants of European architecture in the whole of Asia. It is one of the most popular sites that you can find when visiting Malacca. It is a major historical landmark and is probably the most photographed structure in Malacca.

--St Paul's Church: St. Paul's Church is a historic church building in Malacca, Malaysia that was originally built in 1521. It is located at the summit of St. Paul's Hill and is a part of the Malacca Museum Complex.

--Jonker Street: Jonker Street is the Chinatown street of Malacca. The road is filled with historical houses along its left and right sides dating back to the 17th century. It also has shops selling antiques, textiles, foods, handicrafts, and souvenirs.
