

the Needlework Collective at RIVERHOUSE WORKSHOP

The Riverhouse Needlework Collective is a collaborative group dedicated to the exploration, preservation, and innovation of textile-based arts. The Collective encourages skill-sharing, collaboration, exhibition, and education across all areas of fiber and fabric craft, such as embroidery, sewing, quilting, fabric arts, cross stitch and much more.

Deborah Bohnenstiehl, Stockton, AL, enjoys all types of fabric arts - embroidery, machine sewing, quilting, knitting and crochet. The Needlework Collective is Deborah's vision and undertaking.

Open Needlework Collective

Tuesdays, 1-4pm at the Lodge

If there is a needle work skill that you are interested in learning we can show you how! Call or text Deborah for what materials you will need to bring. This is a great time of friendship and camaraderie.

Everyone is welcome.

Call Deborah at 251.623.2028 to reserve your spot!

Make. Share. Stitch Together.
