

Kitten Kaboodle Detective Agency

Mini Mystery #2

The Case of the Missing Pumpkin Hidey

Aloha, Junior Cat Detective. I, Moki, the amazing cat detective, have been very busy.

So many cases are piling up that I need help from a Junior Cat Detective once again!

This time, Lulu needs help.

Lulu looks sad. Her favorite soft hidey — the one that looks like a pumpkin — is missing.

“I looked everywhere,” Lulu says.

Oinky, the piglet, has been spending a lot of time near the guinea pigs. She’s convinced that the guinea pigs are her sisters. “Oinky, we are guinea pigs,” Lulu squeaks gently. “You are a piglet.”

“All I hear is pigs. I love my sisters,” Oinky says.

“Never mind. I have to find my hidey. Junior Cat Detective, will you help me?”

🐾 Junior Detective, will you help Moki figure out what happened to Lulu’s pumpkin hidey?

✓ The Solution

Did you solve the mystery, Junior Detective?

🐾 Oinky took the pumpkin hidey.

Oinky wasn't being naughty at all.

She wanted a soft, cozy place where she could feel safe and close.

Oinky thinks the guinea pigs are her sisters, and she wanted to curl up near them — just like family does.

Once everyone understood how Oinky was feeling, they found a kind solution:

- More hideys
- More sharing
- More understanding

🎉 Excellent detective work!
