Dear President Ragan,

My name is Carole. I am ten years old and in fourth grade. My teacher brought a television to school to watch you. I loved your speeches because they made me think of America.

I hope you can stop inflation. I promise I will help you stop pollution. Me and my friend Katrina Smith will clean up our parks.

My feelings about you are good because I hope your a very good president. I hope you can come to our school soon.

Yours truly,
Carole Herde

Dear Mr. President:

My name is Marcie Rust and I'm 10 years old. Today our class and many others watched the inauguration on television in school. I'm really glad that the hostages are out of Iran and on their way home.

I liked the speech you made very much. The part that interested me most was when you said that every person is a hero. I like the way you were sworn in, too.

Also in school we sang "American The Beautiful" with you.

I hope you can stop inflation because we can't buy all the things we want. I hope you will work on it.

I'm really glad you're our President.

Yours truly,
Marcie Rust

Dear Presedent Reagon,

My name is Euka Lohmiller. I am nine years ole and in forth grade. I live in Yorkville, Illinois. And we watched you become the fortieth Presedent of the United States.

I like your speech a lot. It made me feel verry proud to be an American. I am happy that we have schools, factories and freedom.

Today this is a happy day because you are the presedent I've always wanted and the fifty-two hosteges are free.

I hope you can stop inflation because prices are getting too high. I will cleen up places so there will be less litter. I hope someday America can be better. And your family will be happy for the four years. Come visit us someday!

Sincerely,
Euka Lohmiller

Dear President Reagon,

I saw you on T.V. making your speech. I felt very good that I am in the United States. I herd you say that we all have to stick togeather. I am glad that the hostages flew out Iran. I voted for you on Election Day. O.K! and by the way, I will tell you about me. I have blond hair and blue eyes. My hobby is roller-skating. I am a jymnist. I am a forth grader at Yorkville Grade School. I saw you at the Inaugration Parade and I saw you put your hand on your heart. I was very pleased that your our President of the U.S.A. I Like you.

Congratulations!

Your friend,
Dawn Armbruster

Dear Mr. President...

Dear Mr. President:

Hi, my name is Ted Treadway. I am nine years old. Today we watched the inauguration. I heard what you said. We all had to stick together. I really liked the speech you gave. I wish I could have been there because it was an important day for me.

Mrs. Esgar my teacher told the class about Juanita Booker who sang the "Star Spangled Banner". I'm very glad you're President. I'm glad the hostages are coming home.

I wish you could cut inflation so my mom could buy a car and so food won't be so expensive.

I you ever visit Illinois. Could you visit Yorkville?

Sincerely yours,
Ted Treadway

Dear Mr. President:

The inauguration was great. You deserved to be President. The speech you made was hard for me to understand but I am only in fourth grad. I hope you are as good as you speech.

I am glad the hostages are free. In the newspaper it said that when we get the hostages that we will not give them a dime of are money and we start a war. I don't believe it. I hope you don't believe it.

I hate inflalon I'm sure you do to. When I'm older I will get a job and help stop inflation. I hope you stop inflation befor it gets worse. I think that somethings cost too much. Please write back.

Your friend,
Tim Walters

Dear Mr. President,

I like the speach you had said. I hope you are President again. You looked Brave and strong like nothing would stop you from doing the speech. What was that ladies name that sang the "Star Spangled Banner"? I thought she did great so I would like her autograph. Tell her she should work some where so she could have good money. Try your best on inflation, please.

Your's truly,
Joey Grimes

After viewing the inauguration on television last week, the fourth graders at Yorkville Grade School discussed the significance of the day. The change of power, the release of the hostages and the students' impressions of President Reagan's speech resulted in many interesting letters which are on the way to the White House. Here are a few of them.

January 20, 1981

Dear President Reagan,

I am a fourth grader from Yorkville, Illinois.

Today we watched you be sworn into office. I really liked your speech. It was very touching especially the part about how we, the people are American. It made me feel proud to be an American.

I am working to be a good figure skater so that someday I can represent our country in the Olympics.

I'm glad you are our President. I hope you can fight inflation.

Keep trying your best.

Sincerely,
Heather Ellingwood

Dear Mr. President,

My name is George Niforatos. I am 9 years old.

I am watching the Inauguration. We got to watch the Inauguration in school. I really liked the Inauguration. It is very fun to watch and it is very interesting.

I really liked your speech

too! I liked the part when you said that the states built the federal government and not the other way around and that you'd give more power to to the states.

I liked the way that Juanita Booker sang "The STar Spangled Banner."

I am so glad that the hostages were freed.

Sincerely,
George Niforatos

Dear Mr. President,

My name is Staci. I live in Yorkville, Ill. a small town. I'm in 4th grade with a very good teacher.

I heard your Speech. It was super. We are all behind you. I am willing to help you in every way I can. It must of been a great honor to become President of the United States.

I feel scared but I learned to feel good because I'm an American. I hope you write back.

Best Wishes,
Staci Swan
