

Student Critiques of Purge Home Study Course

“Supplement is good study guide. Not that I did not like, however, certain dates show their age. Also, typographical errors are rare but exist.”

State Center

“Very useful information.” North Liberty

“The reason I liked this course is the subject matter was detailed and easy to understand. It emphasizes the importance of a marketable title and law how important it is to our purchasers.”

Marion, Iowa

“I like writing things out because this is how I learn vs. listening in a class. Abstracts—blah//It was a bit hard. But I did learn a lot of things.”

Dubuque, Iowa

“A lot of information that has never been covered in any previous course I have taken—especially into an Iowa Title Guaranty.”

North Liberty, Iowa

“Being in the real estate business for 43 years, this was a course where I still learned a few things. Not a lot of information that I use on a daily work day, so somewhat boring to me.”

Monticello, Iowa

“Interesting topic! Important material to any of us in the RE business.”

Orange City, Iowa

“I was interested in the use of recorded affidavits to correct errors in descriptions or easement on a deed—the whole course was very informative. Nothing I did not like However I will attend classes for the rest of my life because I do not like home study even though I picked up new information.”

(note from Brad: affidavits clarify information on deeds and easements but corrections usually require a new deed or easement. Check with your lawyer for specifics.)
