Being time stands on the highest mountain,
It's the bottom of the ocean depths.
It is the shape of saints and sinners alike.
It's the earth, the moon and the sky.

All things and time exist in every one of us.

It's not just a passing thing.
Time is being and being is time.
As it leaves it also arrives.

Radiance in every thing, in every moment.
All things and time exist in every one of us.
