

Monster

Mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother.

The child is born in innocence,
With teachers of ignorance and hate.
And time sets conditions in motion,
For a man to a monster mutate.

So, mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother.

The monster feeds on a hatred,
The monster feeds on the greed,
The monster feeds on suspicion.
The monster breeds in the fear.

So, mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother.

Instrumental

Now, the monster is growing in power.
His footsteps land loud on the floor.
No need to stand guard at the window.
That's his wrap that you hear at the door.

So, mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother attend to your children,
Mother.

Instrumental

Mother attend to your children.
Steer them away from the minions.
Do not avoid these decisions.
Mother attend to your children.
Mother attend to your children.
Mother attend your children.
Mother!
