Appendix K: KINGCO EVENT SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES AND CHECKLIST

General Reminders:

- o Check in and identify yourself with the opposing school game supervisor prior to the contest and periodically throughout the contest.
- o Be Visible. Locate yourself in front of the student section.
- o Game supervisors should work together during the contest to address issues. If necessary athletic directors will follow-up the next day.
- o Arrive prior to the contest to monitor your students as they arrive.
- o Stay at the event until all students have left the premises.
- o Enforce school and KingCo sportsmanship and spectator rules.

What to watch for:

- o No hand-held signs. Enforce KingCo sign policy.
- o Students must always remain off the playing surface. This includes halftime.
- o No artificial noisemakers.
- o Tailgating allowed at home events only.

- o No live animals are permitted.
- o No glass bottles
- o No throwing of objects of any kind (confetti, balls etc.)
- o No bare chest and /or body painting. NO Masks. Face painting only if student can be identified (admin must approve).
- o Students should remain in their own student sections and should not intermingle with opposing fans.

Note: A host school may have rules and guidelines that are more restrictive for their site than those listed above. The host team has that right and can set higher standards. Each school's game supervisor is responsible for their student section and for enforcing the rules of the home school in addition to KingCo spectator rules.

BE LOUD – BE PROUD – BE POSITIVE

CHEER FOR YOUR TEAM/SCHOOL

NOT AGAINST YOUR OPPONENT OR OFFICIALS

BE A FAN – NOT A FANATIC
