GRACE IS NOT A LICENSE TO SIN

Grace Produces Righteous Living

TITUS
2:11-14
(KJV)

- 11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,
- 12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;
- 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
- 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

Many people misunderstand grace and think it gives them permission to live any way they want.

The truth is, grace teaches us how to live.

The grace of God that brings salvation teaches us to:

- Deny ungodliness.
- Deny worldly lusts.
- Live soberly.
- Live righteously.
- Live godly.
- Look for the blessed hope.
- Be zealous of good works.

Grace does not remove our responsibility.

Grace changes our heart so we want to live for God.

Grace gives us the power to say "no" to sin and "yes" to righteousness.

Grace motivates obedience.

Grace produces holiness.

Grace brings transformation.

True grace will always produce a life that honors God.

Grace is not a license to sin. Grace is the power to live for God.
