WALKING IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

Daily Dependence and Obedience

GALATIANS 5:16 KJV

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

GALATIANS 5:17-18 KJV

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

ROMANS 8:14 KJV

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

Walking in the Holy Spirit

means conducting daily life in conscious dependence upon and obedience to Him. A walk consists of repeated steps. Spirit-led living is therefore revealed in daily choices: what we think, what we say, how we respond to temptation, how we treat people, and whether we obey the word of God.

The believer still experiences conflict between the flesh and the Spirit. This conflict does not mean that the Holy Spirit has departed. It means that the desires of the flesh oppose His holy direction. God does not command believers to defeat the flesh through self-confidence. He commands them to walk in the Spirit.

The promise of Galatians 5:16 is direct. As believers walk in the Spirit, they will not fulfil the lust of the flesh. The flesh may still make its demands, but the believer does not have to obey them. The Spirit supplies a new direction, a new desire, and strength to follow God.

SUPPORTING SCRIPTURES: DAILY DIRECTION AND OBEDIENCE

COLOSSIANS 2:6 KJV

As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

PSALM 143:10 KJV

Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

REPEATED STEPS OF FAITH

SPIRIT-LED DAILY CHOICES

- WHAT WE THINK
- WHAT WE SAY
- HOW WE FACE TEMPTATION
- HOW WE TREAT PEOPLE
- WHETHER WE OBEY THE WORD

THE FLESH MAY MAKE ITS DEMANDS,
BUT THE BELIEVER DOES NOT HAVE TO OBEY THEM.

WALK IN THE SPIRIT.
