

Young Business United

Rryn Schumacher, MBA

Rryn has a solid background in marketing and entrepreneurship. He is currently FPACC's Vice President of Entrepreneurship Opportunities,

For 7 years he ran a successful event planning company called Double Y Entertainment, producing shows, concerts, conferences and other events all over the west side of the US, from Los Angeles to Phoenix to Las Vegas.

Rryn now focuses on Young Business United (YBU), engaging more and more young Filipino Americans to be entrepreneurs and harness their investment power for innovative businesses in the Philippines.

In 2014, Rryn was chosen to be part of the Filipino American Young Leaders Program, recognized as one of the top 10 young Filipino Americans in the country by the Philippine Embassy. He was also invited to the White House in 2015 as part of the White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders.

His Favorite Color is Blue.

And a Fun Fact about Rryn is that he has a dog named Breakfast. It's a running joke on the stereotype that Asians eat dogs... and she's breakfast!

Young Business United | www.ybuhub.com | 747-477-5022

Sign up on our landing page for upcoming promotions