

Trusting your High Priestess

Signs, Faith and Believing in YOURSELF

Why The High Priestess

Why does The High Priestess help us trust ourselves.

The High Priestess is an Energy.

This Energy engages and interacts with us during certain moments or scenarios in our lives.

Some people describe this energy as Guides, Angels, or Spirits and the fun part is.....that's all true!

The High Priestess

- Significant Symbolism
 1. Columns (King Solomon) Boaz: In him is Strength, Jachin: He will Establish
 2. Date Palms (Masculine) and Pomegranates (Feminine) on thin veil (many worlds and dimensions)

How do we know when The High Priestess is trying to interact with us

The High Priestess energy first shows up in our external world to let her presence be known. It's an announcement to pay attention, so then in those moments we can go inward, process and discover the message.
