BOOK GROUP QUESTION PROMPTS

- What was your favorite part of the book?
- What was your least favorite part of the book?
- What emotions did Jennifer's character make you feel?
- What emotions did Tara's character make you feel?
- Did you like the storytelling from both sisters' point of view?
- They say there are three sides to every story: one person's side, the other person's side, and the truth. Do you feel like that could apply to Jennifer and Tara? Does it matter what the "truth" could have been between them if it made each sister feel the way it did?
- How did the author handle the topics of mental illness and suicide?
- Did any of your beliefs about mental illness or suicide change while reading this book?
- Have you ever experienced a grief that didn't feel like you thought it would or should feel? How did you cope with that?
- What did you think of Jennifer's attempt to "find" her grief? Did you expect that?
- Do you think that Jennifer truly got what she was seeking? Do you feel like her character had resolution?
