Greetings Brother Knights, Sister Columbiettes and
the Delaney Council Family,

As I write this tonight I would like to say, how proud I am about the men of this council. They raised close to 800 pounds of food and $260 cash for the Saint James food pantry!! There is no better feeling than helping out the less fortunate. Excellent job by Gary Rodetis and John Daly and all Brother Knights who helped out.

Well, summer is just about over, now it's time to get to work. This month has our Installation for all our officers. The next day I have the pleasure of Installing the Columbiette officers. Good luck to all the officers of Brothers and Sisters.

Later in the month we will restart our Core program with Deacon Chris;
and hopefully get back to Friday Night at Delaney Nights!

So don't forget we are back to 2 meetings a month.

May God Bless America.

We kneel for the Cross and Stand for the Flag.
Prayers are always answered when you Believe!

CHANCELLOR'S CORNER

My fellow Knights,

Recently our council, achieved gold star status, an incredible achievement. An achievement made possible by our hard-working brother knights. In order for our council to continue growing, we need the support of many. Where there are numbers, there is strength. Where there is strength, there is prosperity. If you are able to and have time to spare, please consider volunteering and assisting with the many activities our council is involved with. We are here to do His work. May the Lord bless each and every member of Monsignor Delaney Council.

Chancellor-Thaddeus Polant

Saint of the Month....

Pope Leo XIV announced July 31 that he will name Saint John Henry Cardinal Newman a Doctor of the Church, making him the 38th saint and only the second Englishman in Church history, after Saint Bede the Venerable, to enjoy the rare honor.

Cardinal Newman was a prominent Anglican prelate and a leader in the Oxford Movement, a group of Protestant scholars who sought to reconnect modern Christian thought with the writings of the Church Fathers. It was in the context of his work in that movement that Newman shocked the Anglosphere with the announcement that he would defect from the Church of England and join the Roman Catholic Church.

"To be deep in history is to cease to be a Protestant," he famously explained. Here are five other quotations, including a couple of prayers, from this saint and soon-to-be Doctor of the Church:

"God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about."

"A man would do nothing if he waited until he could do it so well that no one could find fault."

"With Christians, a poetical view of things is a duty. We are bid to color all things with hues of faith, to see a divine meaning in every event."

"Knowledge is one thing, virtue is another; good sense is not conscience, refinement is not humility, nor is largeness and justness of view faith. Philosophy, however enlightened, however profound, gives no command over the passions, no influential motives, no vivifying principles. Liberal Education makes not the Christian, not the Catholic, but the gentleman. ... Quarry the granite rock with razors, or moor the vessel with a thread of silk; then may you hope with such keen and delicate instruments as human knowledge and human reason to contend against those giants, the passion and the pride of man."

"Dear Jesus, help me to spread Thy fragrance everywhere I go. Flood my soul with Thy spirit and love. Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that all my life may only be a radiance of Thine. Shine through me and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel Thy presence in my soul. Let them look up and see no longer me but only Jesus. Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as you shine, so to shine as to be a light to others. Amen."

Then Joshua said to Achan, "Why have you brought trouble on us? The LORD will now bring trouble on you." And all the Israelites stoned Achan and his family and burned their bodies. Joshua 7:25 NLT
"Achan stood open-mouthed with the other Israelites and watched God crush the fortified city of Jericho. He heard God say, "Don't take anything for yourselves or the entire nation will suffer." But he chose to act on his desires rather than God's directions. He thought the robe he took was too beautiful to burn. And the gold and silver he hid? Surely God wouldn't miss a few bars. Wrong! Achan did the missing.

Achan missed the significance of God's command. God did not issue a list of invasion suggestions and directions. The orders were to be carried out without hesitation or alteration. God was shaping a people who would obey his Word.

Achan also missed the reason for God's command. Because his perspective was self-centered, he couldn't see what was at stake. God was building a nation of people who understood that private actions lead to public consequences. Achan believed in the modern saying, "As long as no one else is hurt or sees what I'm doing, I can do it." But his actions led to suffering and humiliation for the nation and death for his own family.

We don't always know how our actions will affect other people. But if we assume that our actions won't affect others at all, we will be making a terrible mistake. We have taken the idea of personal decisions and privacy to the place where we idolize these perceived rights. But is anything "just our business"? How many of your plans and actions today would be changed if someone was right beside you every moment? Remember, others are always involved! God doesn't miss anything. Our desires do not override God's directions.

Two Wolves

One evening an old Cherokee told his grandson about a battle that goes on inside people... He said,

"My son, the battle is between two "wolves" inside us all.

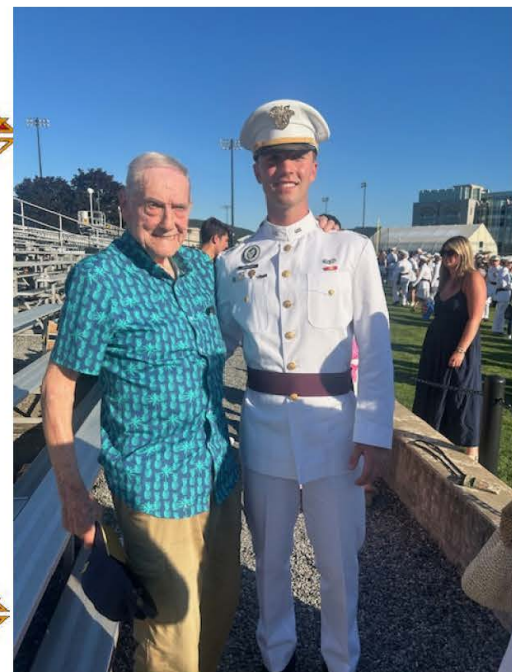

One is Evil. It is anger, envy, jealousy, sorrow, regret, greed, arrogance, self-pity, guilt, resentment, inferiority, lies, false pride, superiority, and ego.

The other is Good. It is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion and faith."

The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather: "Which wolf wins?"

The old Cherokee simply replied, "The one you feed"

Columbiette President's Report: Greetings,

I hope this finds everyone happy and healthy after a beautiful summer. My name is Gina McGrath and I've had the honor and privilege to be elected the new Columbiette President. I'm not a stranger to the the Knights, my husband is a Fourth degree Knight as is my middle son. My eldest and youngest boys are Third Degree Knights. My goal this year is to keep things running smoothly and to do that I will need the help and support from my sister Columbiette's. I want to thank my board members that have stayed on and the new members that have just come aboard. Thank you to all that were able to attend our planning meeting in August.

I know we will have to also work closely with the Knights, which we look forward to. Good luck to Stan Wisz the new Grand Knight. You've always supported us.

In closing I would like to say let's have a successful and fun year. I look forward to working with everyone.
God Bless,
Gina McGrath

As past President , I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who supported me this past year.

Thank you to the members for their generous gift and thanks to my board of officers for the beautiful plant and gift card.

Thanks to Linda Ruggiero, Joan Russo, Maryann Capparelli, Maria Porto and everyone who contributed to make our end of year party a huge success.

Thank you to the state and chapter officers who joined our celebration.

Special thanks and much love to my son-in-law Anthony and my son Joe for providing fresh squeezed lemonade and delicious Italian ices. The highlight for me was my daughter Michelle and my precious grandson Lorenzo presenting me with flowers.

Lastly, Thank You to my husband Neil for his endless patience and computer help. I could not have gone through this year without all of you!
