*May we all be blessed with Faith, Hope and Love.
God's Peace be with you all!*

From the Desk of the Grand Knight: Michael Antonucci

Greetings Brother Knights, Sister Columbiettes and Delaney Council Family,

Where did the summer go? I hope everyone took advantage of spending some time with family and friends whether on vacation, staycation or just relaxing.

August was full of activities for the Council. We began with our successful picnic, which was held at the council instead of a park. Everyone who attended had a good time and the committee worked extremely hard. Thanks to Ted Polant and his committee, special thanks to Bill Palazzoa who worked tirelessly over a hot grill on an extremely hot humid day. Thanks also to the brothers who helped set up the tables and numerous pop ups for shade. We even had air conditioning available. Well Done! The following weekend we held the 300 Club party, Chairman PGK Dennis Winkler, Al Porto and Joe Falce did a wonderful job. Our MC for the night was PGK Tom Moran with music provided by PGK Deacon John Horn better known as "Johnny Smooth".

Congratulations to the winners. The next day we held the Installation of Officers, beginning with the 12 noon Mass at St. James. We were honored with the Mass being concelebrated by Father John Derasmo, our Pastor and Father Benjamin Ogbunuko, a fellow brother Knight of our Council. Father John spoke very highly of the Knights of Columbus, our Council and a brief lesson about Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney, our founder. Following the Mass, we went back to our Council for the Installation conducted by our District Deputy Vinny Mineo, PGK Tom Moran, FDD and Conference Chairman; along with Deacon Chris Daniello. I was very pleased with the attendance of every one of our Officers for the new Columbian year. I would be remiss if I did not reiterate my appreciation and thanks to the families of our Officers and Brother Knights who support us in our mission to be there for others. Thank You.

The week of our installation was followed by three days of remembrance of the Knight of Columbus founder Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney, Born August 12, 1852, Feast Day August 13, and day of his death August 14, 1890. I hope and pray he will be elevated to Sainthood soon. If you want to learn more about Father McGivney, follow the link: <https://www.fathermcgivney.org/>

September brings Labor Day, a day to honor the nation's workers and their contributions. Followed by a day we should never forget September 11, 2001, now known as Patriots Day. We should set aside some time to reflect on the many sacrifices of the victims and the brave acts and support of so many. In addition, we should remember the loss we still suffer today from the effects of that tragic day. May God bless the many victims and their families.

Friday September 13, we are hosting a Beer Tasting at the Council; see PGK Dennis Winkler for information and tickets.

Thursday September 19, we will have a trainee and guest speaker from America's VetDogs, please make an effort to attend, it should be very enlightening. The Month of October we remember Christopher Columbus which our order is named after. Also, in October, we will be hosting an Octoberfest; more details will follow at meetings and via emails.

Let us Pray for those who are forgotten or don't have someone to pray for them,

Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Pray for us

SAINT OF THE MONTH:

A Tribute to St. Pius X on the Anniversary of His Canonization

On May 29, 1954, 70 years ago, Pope Pius XII canonized Pope Pius X in front of an innumerable crowd. Everyone saw this canonization as extraordinary, since one would have to go back to 1712 – the year in which Clement XI entered Pius V into the canon of saints (the pope of the Rosary, of Lepanto, and of the Mass) – to see the figure of a sovereign pontiff honored in such a way.

Through St. Pius X, who reigned from 1903 to 1914, Pius XII wanted to give an example to the entire Church of the sanctity of a pope, a "papal holiness" [1] able to guide the sheep in difficult times. In the beatification brief (June 3, 1951), Pius XII enumerated the principal traits worthy of attracting the attention and admiration of the crowds:

- 1.) Concern for the holiness of the clergy, the key to renewing all things in Christ, according to his sublime motto [2]. Pius X wanted a clergy who were distinguished by their piety, their obedience, and their knowledge.
- 2.) The renewal of ecclesiastical studies. Pius X exhorted Christian philosophers to defend the truth under the banner of St. Thomas Aquinas. He founded the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome, encouraging theological sciences, inspired exegesis, and carefully prepared preaching on the part of the clergy.
- 3.) Concern for the eternal salvation of souls. While Pius X wanted a holy clergy, it was with the idea of the instruction of the faithful that he gave a catechism, made for adults as well as children. Regarding children, he will forever remain the pope of the Eucharist, favoring early communion, but also – and for all – frequent and even daily communion.
- 4.) The defense of the Faith in its fullness and purity. The false teachings that represented all the errors were unmasked under the label of Modernism, and wisely repressed (Pascendi, September 8, 1907). In these circumstances, as in his fight against anticlerical laws and the secularist separation of Church and State, St. Pius X was, in the words of the Angelic Pastor, an "infallible teacher of the faith," the "intrepid avenger of religion" and the "guardian of the freedom of the Church."
- 5.) Love of the liturgy. Initiator of an authentic liturgical movement, Pius X renewed sacred music, as well as the Breviary, the calendar of feast days in a way to orient "the Church resolutely towards a liturgical life that is thoroughly imbued with traditional piety, sacramental grace, and inspired beauty" [3].

These are the main features of the sanctity of Pius X and the holiness of a period of governance totally penetrated with the grandeurs and supernatural riches that are the treasure of the Church. Pius XII also evokes the reforming work accomplished in the Roman Curia, in schools and parishes, and the formidable work of bringing together into a single corpus the hitherto dispersed laws of the Church (the Code of Canon Law, promulgated in 1917). There is also the attention Pius X paid to evangelization in the missions and also his appeals for unity to the "separated Oriental Christians."

Pius XII canonized this pontifical holiness for a very specific purpose: in order to "dispose minds to confront our own struggles and to ensure our victories and those of future generations" [4]. Proclaimed "saint and guide of the men of today," "apostle of the interior life," St. Pius X is given as an "providential example for the modern world in which worldly society, becomes always more of an type of enigma to itself, anxiously seeking a solution to restore a soul! Let it therefore take as a model the Church gathered around her altars" [5].

Because this pope "aroused everywhere an immense movement of return to the splendors of the liturgy and sacred music, and banished ugliness from the holy temple of God" [6].

He organized Catholic Action on a sound basis and promoted the social and professional activities of Catholics within a confessional framework. For people and all men of good will, so that they find access to Jesus Christ in the Church. This was his first concern, Pius XII explains, because God "is the origin and foundation of all order, of all justice, of all right in the world.

Where God is, order, justice and law reign." Hence the great project of the pontificate of Saint Pius X to organize the law of the Church. Hence again the primacy of faith and sound doctrine which was "the ultimate service of charity, rendered by a Saint, as Head of the Church, to all humanity" [7].

Finally, for the enemies of the Church, this canonization was performed so that they may know the intrepidity and the strength that only God can give to his Vicar on earth and, through him, to His children spread throughout the world. Emblematic was the courage with which Pius X rejected the laws separating Church and State; he "gave France, cruelly persecuted, new bishops, and resisted the attacks of the wicked" [8]. 70 years ago, this what Pius XII showed as an example to the world: the very papal holiness of a worthy and true successor of Peter. He had accepted the honor of the supreme pontificate "like a cross" – accepto in cruce. He carried it out like a saint.

REFLECTION BY DEACON
CHRIS DANIELLO...
SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT... WHAT ARE YOU CARRYING AROUND

YOU ARE HOLDING A CUP OF COFFEE WHEN SOMEONE COMES ALONG AND BUMPS INTO YOU OR SHAKES YOUR ARM, MAKING YOU SPILL YOUR COFFEE EVERYWHERE.

WHY DID YOU SPILL THE COFFEE?

"BECAUSE SOMEONE BUMPS INTO ME!!!" WRONG ANSWER.

YOU SPILLED THE COFFEE BECAUSE THERE WAS COFFEE IN YOUR CUP.

HAD THERE BEEN TEA IN THE CUP, YOU WOULD HAVE SPILLED TEA.

WHATEVER IS INSIDE THE CUP IS WHAT WILL SPILL OUT.

THEREFORE, WHEN LIFE COMES ALONG AND SHAKES YOU (WHICH WILL HAPPEN), WHATEVER IS INSIDE YOU WILL COME OUT. IT'S EASY TO FAKE IT, UNTIL YOU GET RATTLED.

SO, WE HAVE TO ASK OURSELVES... "WHAT'S IN MY CUP?"

WHEN LIFE GETS TOUGH, WHAT SPILLS OVER?

JOY, GRATITUDE, PEACE AND HUMILITY?

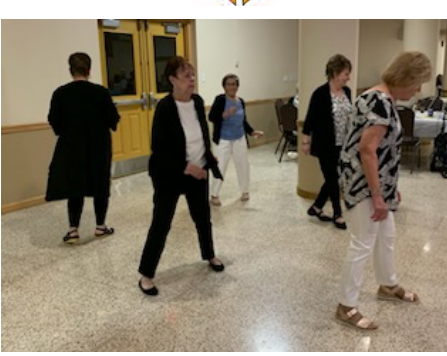

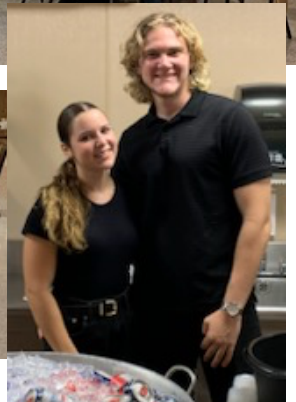

ANGER, BITTERNESS, VICTIM MENTALITY AND QUITTING TENDENCIES.

LIFE PROVIDES THE CUP; YOU CHOOSE HOW TO FILL IT.

TODAY LET'S WORK TOWARDS FILLING OUR CUPS WITH GRATITUDE, FORGIVENESS, JOY, WORDS OF AFFIRMATION, RESILIENCE, POSITIVITY, AND KINDNESS, GENTLENESS AND LOVE FOR OTHERS.

and anxiety.
Pray for us, O good St. Anthony! Help us to realize that Jesus is with us every step of the way, every day of our lives, and that in the strength of His gracious love, we will overcome life's fears and difficulties.
Amen.
