July / August 2023 Edition... Thank God For Every Day!
Congratulations to our new slate of officers!

From the Desk
of the
Grand Knight:
Gary Rodetis

Brother Knights, Sister Columbiettes and the entire Delaney Council Family,

I write this message somewhat nervous, but mostly excited to be your Grand Knight for the upcoming Columbian year.

All I can promise you is to do my best to represent all of you; and to always do what's right for our council and its members. I want to thank all of you for trusting me with this responsibility. I am grateful to the Nominating Committee for putting together a wonderful team of officers who will assist throughout the year.

I am thankful for my wife Julie for her support during the past few years and her encouragement as we look at the year ahead.

A very special thank you goes to the outgoing Grand Knight, Matt Antonucci. Matt, thank you for navigating our council through your Columbian year and at times during some rather adverse conditions. You displayed great leadership skills and a level head that set a wonderful example for me to follow in the upcoming year. Most of all, thank you for your friendship which is something I will cherish for many years to come.

May God watch over us all, May God Bless our Families and May God Bless our Great Nation.

Always yours in Christ, Grand Knight, Gary Rodetis

It is with great sadness that we report on the passing of Father Aaron Vellaramparampil. Father Aaron was a wonderful Priest & Chaplain and was present at most of our meetings and events. We miss you Father. Rest in Peace.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful & kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. O God, who have taught the hearts of your faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that in the same spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolation. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Chancellor's Corner:

The litany of humility

The litany of humility, for private devotions, is a moving prayer that can bring us closer to Christ. Do you worry constantly about what others think of you? Do you feel empty or frustrated if you're not the center of attention? The litany of humility asks for our Lord's assistance in humbly following in His footsteps and casting aside, or at least offering up to Him, all those nagging doubts and fears that come with our self-centeredness.

Our Lord asks us in Matthew's gospel to learn from Him "for I am meek and humble of heart" (Matt 11:29), as he is described in the first line of this prayer below. We ask in this litany, composed by Rafael Cardinal Merry de Val (1865-1930), the Secretary of State for Pope Saint Pius X, that God fill our hearts and souls with genuine humility, an essential virtue for holiness. After all, as we read in the letter of St. James "God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6).

*O Jesus! meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed,
Deliver me, Jesus. (repeat after each line)
From the desire of being loved,
From the desire of being extolled,
From the desire of being honored,
From the desire of being praised,
From the desire of being preferred to others,
From the desire of being consulted,
From the desire of being approved,
From the fear of being humiliated,
From the fear of being despised,
From the fear of suffering rebukes,
From the fear of being calumniated,
From the fear of being forgotten,
From the fear of being ridiculed,
From the fear of being wronged,
From the fear of being suspected,
That others may be loved more than I,
Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it. (repeat after each line)
That others may be esteemed more than I,
That, in the opinion of the world,
others may increase and I may decrease,
That others may be chosen and I set aside,
That others may be praised and I unnoticed,
That others may be preferred to me in everything,
That others may become holier than I,
provided that I may become as holy as I should.*

Dear Sister Columbiettes and Brother Knights,

I didn't think I would be writing another Knight Light letter so soon, however I am now going to serve my fourth term as President of Msgr. Delaney Columbiettes! In order to keep our Auxilliary opened, I have agreed to serve one additional year as President. I pray that we will be able to continue our good works for many years to come. That being said, I ask each Columbiette to consider helping out as a Committee Chairlady or a Committee member. Please think about it and let me know if there's anything you would like to do or help with.

Whatever help you can offer will be greatly appreciated!

At this time, I would like to thank the officers who served our Auxilliary this past year. Your dedication and commitment has not gone unnoticed! My heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you. I would also like to thank all of the Columbiettes who came out to attend our meetings and fundraisers! At the NYS Convention in May, Past Chapter President, Donna Murphy (Holy Innocents Auxilliary) was installed as State Advocate. At the Supreme Convention, which will be held in Piscataway NJ August 25-27, Past State President Jeanne Mucci (Memorare Auxilliary) will be running for Supreme President. Have a safe and happy summer.....I look forward to seeing each of you at our September 11th meeting which will start with coffee and snacks at 7 pm.

Our meeting will begin at 7:30 pm.

Peace and God Bless!

Linda Ruggiero

Act of Consecration and Reparation to Mary Most Holy,
Queen and Mother of the Church at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of La Salette A Prayer

Composed by Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò

O August Queen, Most Holy Mother of God and Mother of the Church, Our Lady, our Hope, Help of Christians, to whose name the hosts of Angels bow down and the infernal hordes withdraw in terror: kneeling at the foot of your throne we invoke You, and we ask You to listen to our prayer Tormented by the grave apostasy which strikes a mortal blow against humanity and by the crisis which afflicts the members of the Mystical Body of your Son, [in these places blessed by your apparition to Mélanie and Maximin,] we consecrate ourselves, our homeland and the Holy Church to You, so that thanks to Your powerful intercession and by virtue of the merits of Your compassion and co-redemption, You may deign to implore the divine Majesty to spare us from the punishments that loom over the world and over nations.

We offer our nothingness to You, aware that we are completely indebted to Your Divine Son; to you we entrust and consecrate ourselves, our families, and our loved ones, so that every breath of ours, every beat of our heart may be an act of praise to the One who as a provident and most loving Mother has so often admonished and called us to correspond to the infinite Love of our Creator and Redeemer by a virtuous life following the Commandments. Protect us in this terrible battle against the Enemy of the human race, who seems to be unleashed today as never before in order to snatch souls from Heaven whom Jesus Christ has redeemed at the price of His Most Precious Blood.

To you we offer and consecrate our homeland, begging you to implore for it the Peace of Christ in the Kingdom of Christ.

Grant us good and holy rulers, who will govern the nation according to justice and respect for the Law of God. Inspire in them the strength to resist the snares of our enemies, the courage to fight them fiercely, and the humility to place all hope in Our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom all earthly power belongs. Obtain for the United States of America protection and defense from the furious assault of Satan: may Your virginal foot crush the head of the ancient Serpent and thwart the infernal plans of his servants. Hear the prayer of so many good souls and spare America, as you spared the inhabitants of the repentant city of Nineveh.

To You, Queen and Mother of the Church, we consecrate the Spouse of the Immaculate Lamb, and in particular the Hierarchy and the Ministers of Your Son: remove from us the scourges that [here] in La Salette you announced as impending on all of us all because of their infidelity. Confirm in your love the clergy and religious who have remained faithful to your Son, and move to true conversion those who afflict his Most Sacred Heart with their sins, scandals, and sacrileges. Let the Holy City of Rome rediscover the Faith and be a beacon of Truth for all nations, and not – as you have revealed – the seat of the Antichrist. O Mary, our Advocate, offer to the Most Holy Trinity the sacrifices, penance and fasts that so many of your children carry out in union with the Passion of the Lord Jesus. May the voice of the many priests who are persecuted because of their fidelity to the Gospel rise to the throne of God’s Majesty, as well as the voice of the faithful who, thanks to them, are able to feed on the Bread of Angels and sanctify themselves through the Holy Sacraments. May the Graces of which you are the Mediatrix descend upon all of them, upon all of us.

Finally, accept, as reparation for our sins, the sins of the Nations, and the sins of your Son’s Ministers, our humble act of submission, by which we proclaim and acknowledge You as our Queen and Lady, and Your Divine Son, Jesus Christ, Our Lord and King. Preserve us in Your love, accompany us with Your intercession during this earthly exile, and welcome us into the blessed glory of Heaven. And so may it be.

“What is prayer? It is the remembrance of God, the feeling of His presence; it is joy from that presence. Always, everywhere, in all things.” —
Fr. Alexander Schmemmann

Realize it, my brethren; —every one who breathes, high and low, educated and ignorant, young and old, man and woman, has a mission, has a work. We are not sent into this world for nothing; we are not born at random; . . . God sees every one of us; He creates every soul, He lodges it in the body, one by one, for a purpose. He needs, He deigns to need, every one of us. He has an end for each of us; we are all equal in His sight, and we are placed in our different ranks and stations, not to get what we can out of them for ourselves, but to labor in them for Him. As Christ has His work, we too have ours; as He rejoiced to do His work, we must rejoice in ours also."
—St. John Henry Newman

Give us, O Lord, a steadfast heart, which no unworthy affection may drag downwards; give us an unconquered heart, which no tribulation can wear out; give us an upright heart, which no unworthy purpose may tempt aside. Bestow upon us also, O Lord our God, understanding to know you, diligence to seek you, wisdom to find you, and a faithfulness that may finally embrace you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thomas Aquinas
